Let's Get Real, Kids Don't Belong on Reality TV!

Kids absolutely should not be allowed to participate in reality TV shows. First of all, unlike some child actors, kids on reality TV are not playing a made-up character. Instead, these shows capture their real-life moments, some of which can be embarrassing. Once they become famous, even off camera they are being watched. Therefore, they can no longer enjoy privacy in their everyday life. Also, being on a reality TV show is a job! Kids shouldn't be working because it takes time away from learning and playing. Of course, there are benefits to being a reality TV star, such as fame and money. However, the amount of pressure and sacrifice for kids who star on reality TV shows is not worth it!
