needs a new owner...

BY ANYA SMITH

On Friday at 4pm the owners of the Fairview Hotel had a shock when an unexpected guest arrived. He was a King Cavalier pup about 9 months old.

The hotel manager Ken Barker said, "He wandered in and put his paw on the desk as if he was another guest. He looked at us with big black appealing eyes as if he was asking for a room. He is an adorable dog and my staff fell in love with him. They have doted on him."

The hotel receptionist Miss Kind added, "He is so affectionate. He will make a fantastic pet for somebody. I would have had him myself if I had a bigger flat with a garden."

The dog had been living rough on the common and was starving. We are searching for a suitable new owner. An animal with such a gentle nature deserves a good home.

Examining Disaster Risk Reduction in Indonesia Deny Hidayati, Yanu Endar Prasetyo, Jonatan Lassa, Syarifah Aini Dalimunthe, 2025-07-29 This book offers a critical examination of the global diffusion and local reception of disaster risk reduction DRR programs through the lens of Indonesia s unique challenges and successes This book critically examines the global diffusion and local reception of risk by implementing Indonesia s disaster risk reduction DRR programs Global efforts to strengthen local disaster resilience capacities have become a staple of international development in recent decades Yet the successful implementation of DRR projects designed to enhance local resilience remains vague There are pockets of success in the post 2018 Central Sulawesi Earthquake but a gap nevertheless remains between global expectations and local realities Through a critical realist study of global and local worldviews of risk in Indonesia this book argues that the global advocacy of DRR remains inadequate because of a failure to prioritize person orientated ethics in its conceptualization of disaster resilience Much of the research and policies on DRR have used social science methods only to complement the technological improvement approach offered in reducing disaster risk especially in the Global South This book invites readers to revisit disaster as a social problem and as a social construct This book emphasizes the importance of social science disciplines to answer extensive topics on DRR from empirical theoretical and philosophical approaches to provide a critical arena and generate dialogue around a people centered approach to DRR Vis vis regional comparison the authors provide a valuable lens to understand the underlying social structures that make resilience possible and unpack the extent to which local governments communities and persons interpret and modify their behavior on risk when faced with the global message on understanding a systemic situation This book is an essential resource for researchers professionals and students in areas of resilience risk management development studies and area studies It provides fresh perspectives and fostering dialogue on DRR in the Global South

Controversy as News Discourse Peter A. Cramer, 2011-06-17 This book presents a constitutive approach to controversy based on a discourse analysis of news texts focusing on the role of journalists as participants who shape public controversy for readers Drawing data from the Reuters Corpus the project identifies formulas that journalists use in reporting controversy and draws conclusions about how these serve professional and textual functions and how they shape public controversy as a natural historical and pragmatic event While the traditions of dialectic and rhetoric have focused on the prescriptive aim of training participants to resolve controversies in philosophical dialogue or public debate settings this orientation has tended to preempt questions about where controversy is located and how it is shaped This project contributes to descriptive ethnographic research about controversy using discourse analysis to address a problem in argumentation

The volume is prefaced with an introduction by the editors and will be a central research text for scholars in this field. Transition and Continuity in School Literacy Development Pauline Jones, Erika Matruglio, Christine Edwards-Groves, 2021-11-18 This book addresses a significant gap in the research literature on transitions across the school years: the continuities and discontinuities in school literacy education and their implications for practice. Across different curriculum domains and using social semiotic, ethnographic, and conversation analytic approaches, the contributors investigate key transition points for individual students' literacy development: elements of literacy knowledge that are at stake at each of these points and variability in students' experiences. Grounding its discussion in classroom voices, experiences, and texts, this book reveals literacy-specific curriculum demands and considers how teachers and students experience and account for these evolving demands. The contributors include a number of established names such as Freebody, Derewianka, Myhill, Rowsell, Moje, and Lefstein, as well as emerging scholars gaining increasing recognition in the field. They draw out implications for how literacy development is theorized in school curriculum and practice, teacher education, further research, and policy formation. In addition, each section of the book features a summary from an international scholar who draws together key ideas from the section and relates these to their current thinking. They deploy a range of different theoretical and methodological approaches in order to bring rich yet complementary perspectives to bear on the issue of literacy transition. NAEP ...
