Criminal Injustice Robynne Neugebauer, 2000-01-01 This volume examines racism within the process of criminal justice In every society criminal justice plays a key role establishing social control and maintaining the hegemony of the dominant economic classes The contributors to this anthology argue that the differential treatment of people of colour and First Nations peoples is due to systemic racism within all levels of the criminal justice system which serves these dominant classes Ideological and cultural changes are preconditions for the success of anti racist policies and practices within the criminal justice system and within other state institutions Recommendations for transformations in justice policy and practice are provided Urban America and Its Police Harlan Hahn, Judson L. Jeffries, 2003 Table of contents Chinese Policing Kam C. Wong, 2009 This book documents a systematic investigation into various aspects of policing in the People s Republic of China including its scholarship idea origin history education culture reform and theory It approaches the study of Chinese policing from an indigenous perspective informed by local empirical data In proposing an innovative theory of community policing entitled Police Power as a Social Resource Theory the book seeks to look at crime as a personal problem and police as a social resource from the perspective of the people and not the state
