

Population Distributions

How does population distribution affect the outcome?

Why?

Alaska's population is 727,000, and is the largest state in the United States per mile² - proportionally it's only 1700,000 people miles, but some states are more densely populated. In Alaska, Texas, New Jersey is one of the most densely populated states in the population of nearly 2 million, but states like Florida or the 48 contiguous states are concentrated around the coast. What are the reasons for the high population along the coast? What effect does this population have on the outcome?

Activity 1 - Population Density and Distribution

1. Name each state.

a. Which state has the most people?
