Our Sellers should not be asked to accept an offer until any and all other offers are shown. When representing the Seller, we must never suggest that a Buyer offer less than the asking price of a property, although we must present all offers when made. We must not disclose to the Buyer what price a Seller may accept, or our Seller's motivation for selling.

When representing the Buyer, we must never suggest that a Seller should counteroffer more than the price offered in the contract. We must not disclose to the Seller what price a Buyer may be willing to pay, or our Buyer's motivation for buying.

We must treat the business of our principals with confidentiality, and never disclose facts to the other party that might work to the disadvantage of our principal. We must be extra cautious when we become financially interested in a listed property, and must disclose any facts or rumors of which we have knowledge. We must also warn the Seller that we are no longer representing his or her interests.

When we are asked to represent a Buyer in a transaction, we may become an intermediary between the parties when showing a property listed by our office. Our Broker must be made aware of this situation, and both parties to the transaction must agree in writing so that we may never appear to have an undisclosed dual agency.

Any of these acts could be construed as a violation of Antitrust laws and subject the individual and our company to severe civil and criminal penalties.

The PRES Real Estate Agent agrees to abide by other laws, including unemployment compensation taxes or workmen's compensation insurance, and to hold the Brokerage harmless from any claims for those items.
