Monolith Joe R. Frinzi, 2018-08-24 Stanley Kubrick's 2001 A Space Odyssey is re-examined in a post-millennial context in this heavily researched, highly detailed study of the making of the landmark film. Its artistic and mythic pedigrees are of special interest. Kubrick and writer Arthur C. Clarke faced a number of challenges in producing an intelligent and innovative A-list movie in what almost a decade before Star Wars was considered a second-class genre: science fiction. The author explores the film's enigmatic storyline and offers a fresh perspective on several artistic elements such as production design, special effects, and the use of music. Michigan Living, 2002

Lesson Plans for Teaching Writing Chris Jennings Dixon, 2007 Why do students often graduate from high school unprepared for college writing? And what can we do about it? These are the questions that a group of classroom teachers set out to explore. Over the course of seven years, a group of middle high school, college, and university teachers participated in a federally funded writing coalition project to implement innovative approaches to teaching writing. Together they developed this series of lesson plans designed to make writing both fun and an integral part of diverse curricula. Practical is the recurrent motif of each teaching strategy. Developed by real teachers in real classrooms, the lessons are grouped into seven categories: writing process, portfolios, literature, research, grammar, writing on demand, and media. Each lesson follows a standard format that includes purpose of the activity, necessary preparation, required props and materials, process and procedure for implementation, instructional pointers and/or possible pitfalls, and reflections from the teacher that provide behind-the-scenes insights. Popular Science, 2004-12 Popular Science gives our readers the information and tools to improve their technology and their world. America's Film Legacy Daniel Eagan, 2009-11-26 America's Film Legacy is a guide to the most significant films ever made in the United States. Unlike opinionated Top 100 and arbitrary Best of lists, these are the real thing: groundbreaking films that make up the backbone of American cinema. Some are well-known, such as Citizen Kane, The Jazz Singer, All Quiet on the Western Front, The Birth of a Nation, and Boyz n the Hood. Others are more obscure, such as Blacksmith Scene, The Blue Bird, The Docks of New York, Star Theatre, and A Bronx Morning. Daniel Eagan's beautifully written and authoritative book is for anyone who loves American movies and who wants to learn more about them. Model Guides for Teaching Literature Clarence C. Lipscomb, M.
