

Persuasive Speech about Poverty

“Poverty is the deprivation of opportunity” - Amartya Sen. Poverty is one of the most leading problems or issue our country and even the world at large is currently facing. It is also the main reason why many, especially people who are drawn by poverty, lost many opportunities. What if poverty will be permanently erased from our country?, Now Imagine a country that is progressive and issues like poverty is gone, What would it look like? But look at our country right now, How do you feel?

The Government is putting much effort upon erasing poverty from our country. But we as individuals can also play a part of helping them. Based on a statistical data coming from Family Income and Expenditure Survey (FIES), 18.1% Filipinos are still experiencing poverty, states that these Filipinos whose income cannot sufficiently meet the individual basic needs one need to have in order to survive. This translates to around 19.99 Million Filipinos who lived on the poverty line. This data serves as a testament to people that we also need to help them. We also need to remember what Jose Rizal, our National Hero once said, “Ang Kabataan ang Pag-asa ng Bayan”. But how can our country progress if most of the children of the future are drowning in the harshness of poverty? We can help, It can be in simply giving food, water, clothes, and shelter for those people. We can also partake in programs implemented by the Government Agencies or by Organizations. We really shouldn’t turn a blind eye to this because If we do, all of us will suffer in the mere future. If we don’t make an action right now, then when?

On top of everything, Poverty is still present even up to this time. More than a million filipinos cannot fulfill or get access to the basic necessities for them to live and survive. Partnering with Government Agencies or Organizations might put a smile to people who are in the underserved sectors, the poor, the hunger, the thirsty, the unprivileged, the community where poverty hit them hard. We can do something about it, you don’t need to have a big pocket to help, it is by

A fresh new approach that strengthens the need for teaching with creative thinking strategies for administrative leadership teams. Few textbooks have such detailed examples combined with the background study of best practices. The authors have great credibility, experience, resources, and abundant research to support their proposal. A very well written text offering ample review of the research. Sara E. Spruce, Professor of Education, Olivet Nazarene University. Use this research-based instructional model to meet students' achievement goals. As the achievement gap between advantaged and disadvantaged students gets wider, teachers and administrators need a proven process to help all students meet the requirements of NCLB. This practitioner-friendly guidebook provides a step-by-step approach to a complete standards-based curriculum and the integration of best practices into the delivery and assessment of instruction in every classroom. The authors present three capacity-building features of the design process: 1. training for building leadership teams to help teachers plan and lead the reform process; 2. stewardship training to assist district administrators and principals in supporting and sustaining the implemented reforms; and 3. a collaborative observation process to help teachers work together and in partnership with principals to monitor and improve classroom instruction. Offering an education model that has been field-tested with more than 50 school districts in the U.S. and Canada, this book shows school leaders how to maximize collaborative observation and other team leadership processes to integrate reforms into a school's existing culture. Educators will learn ways to integrate instructional design with successful instructional reform. Strengthen the learning culture through standards. Develop effective performance indicators. Apply curriculum mapping to instructional design. Designing Instruction supports teachers and administrators working together to raise student achievement by using proven instructional design and best practices.

Critical Reading Across the Curriculum, Volume 1 Robert DiYanni, Anton Borst, 2017-05-01. Powerful strategies, tools, and techniques for educators teaching students critical reading skills in the humanities. Every educator understands the importance of teaching students how to read critically. Even the best teachers, however, find it challenging to translate their own learned critical reading practices into explicit strategies for their students. Critical Reading Across the Curriculum: Humanities Volume 1 presents exceptional insight into what educators require to facilitate critical and creative thinking skills. Written by scholar educators from across the humanities, each of the thirteen essays in this volume describes strategies educators have successfully executed to develop critical reading skills in students studying the humanities. These include ways to help students focus actively, re-read and reflect to re-think and re-consider, understand the close relationship between reading and writing, become cognizant of the critical importance of context in critical reading, and of making contextual connections. Learn to ask the right questions in critical reading and reasoning appreciate reading as dialogue debate and engaged conversation In addition teachers will find an abundance of innovative exercises and activities encouraging students to practice their critical reading skills These can easily be adapted for and applied across many disciplines and course curricula in the humanities The lifelong benefits of strong critical reading skills are undeniable Students with properly developed critical reading skills are confident learners with an enriched understanding of the world around them They advance academically and are prepared for college success This book arms educators librarians high school teachers university lecturers and beyond with the tools to teach a most paramount lesson
