Persuasive Essay On Civil Disobedience:

An Analysis of Henry David Thoreau's Civil Disobedience Mano Toth, Jason Xidias, 2017-07-05 In Civil Disobedience Henry David Thoreau looks at old issues in new ways asking is there ever a time when individuals should actively oppose their government and its justice system After a thorough review of the evidence Thoreau comes to the conclusion that opposition is legitimate whenever government actions or institutions are unacceptable to an individual's conscience What is particularly interesting is that Thoreau's creative mind took him deeper into the argument as he concluded that this legitimate opposition really wasn't enough In Thoreau's opinion anyone who believed something to be wrong had a duty to resist it actively These ideas were completely at odds with the prevailing opinions of the day that it was the duty of every citizen to support the state Thoreau connected ideas and notions in a novel manner and went against the tide generating new hypotheses so that people could see matters in a new light It is a mark of the success of his creative thinking that his views are now considered mainstream and that his arguments are still deployed in defence of the principle of civil disobedience

Persuasive Aesthetic Ecocritical Praxis Patrick D. Murphy, 2015-08-20 Persuasive Aesthetic Ecocritical Praxis continues Patrick D Murphy's focus on transversal ecocritical praxis by considering literature and cinema in terms of the persuasive force of aesthetic activity and whether or not artistic production and its criticism can be considered forms of activism Murphy argues that literature and other forms of aesthetic production hold out the promise of being able to move some individuals deeply through both affective and intellectual engagement in ways that facilitate ideological reflection To analyze aesthetic production ecocritically requires a transversal orientation in order to work continuously at accommodating a vast array of often seemingly disparate perspectives disciplines and contextual information as well as the ever changing thematic plot setting and contextual elements of the aesthetic works under consideration and the responses of changing audiences through time and across cultures Murphy demonstrates this approach through presenting theories of transversality and applying them with attention to issues of propaganda agitation and persuasion both in terms of artistic production and the criticism of such production He also brings an ecofeminist orientation to the fore with particular attention to the gendered economic aspects of environmental issues in an age of land grabs and plantation economies Along the way he treats a wide range of literary works films and miniseries In American literature he discusses realist and science fiction works from Susan Fenimore Cooper's Rural Hours to Paolo Bacigalupi's The Windup Girl Barbara Kingsolver's Flight Behavior to Kim Stanley Robinson's 2312 and Ana Castillo's So Far from God to Leslie Marmon Silko's Gardens in the Dunes In international literature he analyzes Mo Yan's The Garlic Ballads Jiang Rong's Wolf Totem Michiko Ishimure's The Lake of Heaven Miyuki Miyabe's All She Was Worth and other novels The book concludes with a reading of Ernest Callenbach's Ecotopia and Ecotopia Emerging an Afterword recommending further directions for transversal ecocritical research and an interview that discusses Murphy's previous book Transversal Ecocritical Praxis and provides some personal background on
