Peter Heals A Lam e Beggar Song:

The Lam e Man at the Beautiful Gate Peter and John Heal a Beggar Kids' Bible Stories Ayokunle Mathew Akinbi,2025-09-27 Step into the bustling streets of ancient Jerusalem where the magnificent Temple gate known as Beautiful shimmers in the sun Every day a man who has never been able to walk sits in its shadow watching the world hurry by and hoping for a few small coins His world is a simple mat on the dusty ground his dreams as quiet as the footsteps that pass him by But one ordinary afternoon is about to become extraordinary When two of Jesus s friends Peter and John approach the gate they don t have silver or gold to offer Instead they give a gift more precious than any treasure imaginable With a few powerful words and a helping hand a lifetime of stillness erupts into a miracle for all to see Feel the tingle of strength return to tired legs witness the joy of a first ever step and join the chorus of praise as a man s life is changed forever This beautifully retold Bible story filled with vivid sights and sounds teaches children that the greatest gifts come from faith in God and that His love can turn our biggest challenges into a dance of pure joy

Fifteenth-Century Studies Edelgard E. DuBruck, Barbara Gusick, 2001-03
 Founded in 1977 as the publication organ for the Fifteenth Century Symposium, Fifteenth Century Studies has appeared annually since then. It publishes essays on all aspects of life in the fifteenth century, including literature, drama, history, philosophy, art, music, religion, science, and ritual and custom. The editors strive to do justice to the most contested medieval century, a period that is the stepchild of research. The period defies consensus on fundamental issues; some dispute in fact whether the fifteenth century belonged at all to the middle ages, arguing that it was a period of transition, a passage to modern times. At issue therefore is the very tenor of an age that stood under the tripartite influence of Gutenberg, the Turks, and Columbus. Volume 26 contains the customary survey of research on late medieval drama. There are six articles on French literature, four on German topics.

two on Italian art one on Spanish medieval predication and three on English literary matters Six of the articles focus on women and misogyny Further topics include popular approaches to problems of daily living the crusades and mysticism an early warning against excess in travel and exploration the conduct of princes as described in chronicles the so called Pope Joan theater including farces passion pageants and triumphant entries of princes critique of the estates the function of authors and their rights duties and privileges There are 17 book reviews and two obituary dedications The volume has been assembled with special care for style excellence of research and variety of approaches Edelgard DuBruck is professor emerita of Modern Languages at Marygrove College Detroit Michigan Barbara Gusick is professor emerita of English at Troy University Dothan Dothan Alabama
