Bernstein, Jacob Hodel, Lorie Park, 2008-06-01 Summer vacation was the best time of year for Peter an elementary age chick from Penguin Colony Antarctica With school being on break for the next three months that meant his favorite show Penguin Pirate Adventures was back on the air he wouldn't have to see Lois the evil leader of the Girl Army and he and his best friend Matt could spend day and night doing what they enjoyed the most being mischievous While his mischievous tricks were the best out there on the last day of school his doings were overshadowed by a legendary prank done upon him by Lois Peter's need to pay her back will set him on an adventure where he encounters suspicious questioning from the town mayor a near encounter with the mean old Ms Menorahscarf and a valuable lesson in how every action bears consequences which cannot be taken back This story exemplifies to children there are things that happen in their lives which are beyond their control It shows the importance of learning how to cope with what's happening no matter how difficult it may seem at the time In the case of Peter the Mischievous Penguin volume 1 Peter's father has been unemployed for quite some time and come to find out later in the story he had accepted a new job which will force their family to move away from their home This is something many children can relate to in that it enables them to relate to Peter that despite the scariness of the change everything will be alright in the end Visit Peter's fanpage at <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Peter-the-Mischievous-Penguin/260037750705614>
