Enlightened Postmodernism's responsibility under this scenario is limited to making good on its theory, or at least to the extent that any part of it can be made good on. If enlightened Postmodernism, by applying skepticism within itself, is required to overcome problems that are proposed within itself, then it must do so for the sake of delivering of real products to the community as the original problem that it set in motion through the (self-) steps of skepticism, skepticism that has not passed through the same steps of skepticism, and which consequently itself declines to use skepticism.
