The Work of Literary Translation Clive

Scott,2018-06-07 Offering an original reconceptualization of literary translation Clive Scott argues against traditional approaches to the theory and practice of translation Instead he suggests that translation should attend more to the phenomenology of reading triggering creative textual thinking in the responsive reader rather than testing the hermeneutic skills of the professional translator In this new guise translation enlists the reader as an active participant in the constant re fashioning of the text s structural associative intertextual and intersensory possibilities so that our larger understanding of ecology anthropology comparative literature and aesthetics is fundamentally transformed and our sense of the expressive resources of language radically extended Literary translation thus assumes an existential value which takes us beyond the text itself to how it situates us in the world and what part it plays in the geography of human relationships Hart Crane

Brian M. Reed,2006-04-02 This volume studies the relation between globalization and inequalities in emerging societies by linking Area and Global Studies aiming at a new theory of inequality beyond the nation state and beyond Eurocentrism

Poetic Community Stephen Voyce,2013-01-01 Poetic Community

examines the relationship between poetry and community formation in the decades after the Second World War In four detailed case studies of Black Mountain College in North Carolina the Caribbean Artists Movement in London the Women s Liberation Movement at sites throughout the US and the Toronto Research Group in Canada the book documents and compares a diverse group of social models small press networks and cultural coalitions informing literary practice during the Cold War era Drawing on a wealth of unpublished archival materials Stephen Voyle offers new and insightful comparative analysis of poets such as John Cage Charles Olson Adrienne Rich Kamau Brathwaite and bpNichol In contrast with prevailing critical tendencies that read mid century poetry in terms of expressive modes of individualism Poetic Community demonstrates that the most important literary innovations of the post war period were the results of intensive collaboration and social action opposing the Cold War s ideological enclosures The Dream Police Dennis Cooper, 1995 The Dream Police collects the best poems from five of his previous books and also includes a selection of new works From his darkly erotic early verse to the more refined post punk poems to his later experimental pieces Cooper s evolving study of the distances in romantic relationships has made him a singular voice in American poetry
