a novel by Daniel Defoe first published in 1719 Just as in its significantly more popular predecessor Robinson Crusoe 1719 the first edition credits the work s fictional protagonist Robinson Crusoe as its author It was published under the considerably longer original title The Farther Adventures of Robinson Crusoe Being the Second and Last Part of His Life And of the Strange Surprising Accounts of his Travels Round three Parts of the Globe Although intended to be the last Crusoe tale the novel is followed by a third and final novel involving the character by Defoe entitled Serious Reflections of Robinson Crusoe 1720

boy named Xury a captain of a Portuguese ship off the west coast of Africa rescues him The ship is en route to Brazil Crusoe sells Xury to the captain With the captain s help Extrait Any one may judge what a condition I must be in at all this who was but a young sailor and who had been in such a fright before at but a little But if I can express at this distance the thoughts I had about me at that time I was in tenfold more horror of mind upon account of my former convictions and the having returned from them to the resolutions I had wickedly taken at first than I was at death itself and these added to the terror of the storm put me into such a condition that I can by no words describe it But the worst was not come yet the storm continued with such fury that the seamen themselves acknowledged they had never seen a worse We had a good ship but she was deep laden and wallowed in the sea so that the seamen every now and then cried out she would founder It was my advantage in one respect that I did not know what they meant by FOUNDER till I inquired However the storm was so violent that I saw what is not often seen the master the boatswain and some others more sensible than the rest at their prayers and expecting every moment when the ship would go to the bottom In the middle of the night and under all the rest of our distresses one of the men that had been down to see cried out we had sprung a leak another said there was four feet water in the hold
