Language in the Liturgy Barry Spurr, 2025-01-01 Language in the Liturgy is an historically based linguistically focused account of the development of liturgical language in English in the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches over the past half century It analyses issues of style and expression in a wide range of texts setting this analysis within larger contexts of ecclesiastical and societal change since the 1970s The Book of Common Prayer is taken as the benchmark of classical liturgical composition in English not only because it was the first liturgy to be composed in the language but also because of the universally acknowledged beauty of it Professor Spurr makes a detailed comparative and analytical linguistic study of the Prayer Book and the liturgies composed in English in the modern idiom He argues for a renewal of the renewal by the restoration of an appropriate solemnity and sacredness of linguistic expression as exemplified in the traditional Prayer Book rites The book also includes chapters on the role of music and of silence in worship This stimulating study will be of interest to all concerned about the future direction of liturgies in English in the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches Liturgical Hermeneutics of Sacred Scripture Marco Benini, 2023-09-15 The purpose of this book is to explore what a liturgical approach to the Bible looks like and what hermeneutical implications this might have How does the liturgy celebrate understand and communicate Scripture The starting point is Pope Benedict's affirmation that a faith filled understanding of sacred Scripture must always refer back to the liturgy Verbum Domini 52 The first part of the book based on SC 24 provides significant examples to demonstrate The liturgical order of readings intertextually combines Old Testament and New Testament readings using manifold hermeneutical principles specifically how the psalms show the wide range of interpretations the liturgy employs Prayers are biblically inspired and help to appropriate Scripture personally The hymns convey Scripture in a poetic way Signs and actions such as foot washing or the Ephphetha rite enact Scripture The study considers the Mass the sacraments and the Liturgy of the Hours In the second part Benini systematically focuses on the various dimensions of liturgical hermeneutics of the Bible which emerge from the first part The study reflects the approaches the liturgy offers to Scripture and its liturgical reception It explores theological aspects such as the unity of the two Testaments in Christ's paschal mystery or the anamnesis as a central category in both Scripture and liturgy The liturgy does not understand Scripture primarily as a document of the past but celebrates it as a current and living Word of the Lord as a medium of encounter with God Scripture is sacramental Liturgical Hermeneutics of Sacred Scripture seeks to contribute not only to the comparison of the Roman Ambrosian and Byzantine Rite regarding the Word of God but most of all to the overall liturgical approach to Scripture As such it promotes an interdisciplinary dialogue of liturgical and biblical studies Transnational Belonging and Female Agency in the Arts Basia Sliwinska, Catherine Dormor, 2022-10-20 Transnational Belonging and Female Agency in the Arts interrogates the politics of space expressed via womxn's artistic practices which prioritise solidarity and collaboration across borders imagining attentive geographies of difference It considers belonging as a manifestation of processes of becoming that traverse borders and generate new spaces and forms of difference In doing so the book aims to catalyse mutual social relations founded upon responsibility and response ability to each other The transnational framework activates concerns around belonging at a time of intensified divisions partitioning global narratives unequal trajectories and increasing violence against bodies of the most vulnerable largely founded on Eurocentric paradigms of political economic and cultural superiority The contributors engage in a conversation signalling transversal thinking and artmaking in order to articulate and activate in between spaces This is to welcome co affective models of belonging that question versatile embodiments of subjectivity as both agentic and as interrelational Organised around the triangulation of modes of belonging spatial affective and collective overarched by a transnational lens that acknowledges non hierarchical local and socially relevant genealogies against universalising politics of globalisation these essays consider afresh ways in which female agency disrupts borders and activates concerns around different forms of belonging citizenship and transnationalisms Cover Image credit Keren Anavy Garden of Living Images 2018 general installation view detail Courtesy of the artist and Wave Hill

Photographer Stefan Hagen Reclaiming our Roman Catholic Birthright Peter Kwasniewski, 2020-05-23 At the crest of volatile years of experimentation a new rite of Mass was introduced in 1969 no mere cosmetic treatment but a radical reconstruction of the Church s central act of worship A minority of the faithful continued to hold fast to the traditional rite which John Paul II and Benedict XVI gradually freed from restrictions The steady growth of this traditionalist movement inevitably prompts questions in the minds of more and more people What is it that Catholic laity clergy and religious are discovering and falling in love with Could you should you be among them In this engaging book Peter Kwasniewski draws on decades of experience and presuming no specialized knowledge explains why the traditional Mass operates the way it does what its distinctive features and benefits are and how it still captures hearts with a beauty deeply rooted and perennially green Every reader whether already a lover of the Mass of Ages or a complete newbie whether committed or curious perplexed or skeptical sitting on the fence or bouncing back and forth between old and new will find life changing insights in these pages
