Modern Irish-American Fiction Daniel J. Casey, Robert E. Rhodes, 1989-07-01 Reflected in these writings from twenty one Irish Americans are the themes common to all immigrant literature but from the authors own ethnic point of view The struggle for success forms the underlying structure in the stories by O'Hara Curran and McCarthy and the changing values the New World imposes on the individual are seen in Edwin O'Connor's Grand Day for Mr Garvey Irish wit and black humor pepper all the stories as represented by Dunn's bartender philosopher Dooley and Donleavy's Fairy Tale of New York Catholicism is omnipresent and is often characterized by the priest as in Fitzgerald's Benediction Power's Bill and Flaherty's Fogarty Themes that have an immense effect on the characters relationships are their difficulties in communicating with one another which Gill captures succinctly in The Cemetery and the repositioning of gender roles so evident in Cullinan's Life After Death and in Costello's Murphy's Xmas Finally there are the intense often contradictory feelings the characters have toward their homeland Hamill's Gift illustrates the desire to rid Ireland of British rule Gordon's neighborhood shows the immigrants embarrassment over their origins Editors Casey and Rhodes have organized these pieces chronologically beginning at the turn of the century Thus the selections illustrate the progression of Irish American literature and also fulfill the word of William Kennedy who said of his own writing those who came before helped to show me how to turn experience into literature Rural School Bulletin ,1929
