Now someone wants them dead. When a childhood tragedy comes back to haunt Professor David Shepherd, he finds himself in possession of knowledge that holds the world in a delicate balance. He uncovers the Book of Names, an ancient text originating with the biblical Adam and thought lost to history forever. By Kabbalistic tradition, the book contains the names of each generation's thirty-six righteous souls, the Hidden Ones, by whose merits alone the world continues to exist. Legend holds that if all thirty-six Hidden Ones were eliminated, the world would meet its end. When the Hidden Ones start dying of unnatural causes, the world grows increasingly unstable. War in Afghanistan, massive flooding in New York, brutal terrorist attacks in Melbourne, a tanker explosion in Iran. David finds himself battling against the Gnoseos, a secret religious sect whose goal is to destroy the world by eliminating all of the righteous.

souls David's involvement quickly turns personal when his stepdaughter's name is discovered to be one of the endangered. With the help of a brilliant and beautiful Israeli ancient texts expert David races to decipher the traditions of the Kabbalah to save the righteous souls his stepdaughter and perhaps the world.

Sexual Morality John Piderit, 2012-11-03 Informal customs have become the norm for most young adults in matters of sexual intimacy. Unfortunately the sexual revolution has not proven to be as beneficial to women as was hoped and society offers young men little preparation for future roles as husbands and fathers. In this book Father Piderit argues that a natural law approach to morality provides a grounded pathway toward marriage and shows why these fairly traditional practices help young people find a partner whom they can realistically promise to love until death do them part. Offering theory but focusing on practice this book helps young adults understand why sexual intimacy should be reserved for marriage. The first two sections develop the natural law basis for behavior. Father Piderit points out that natural law relies primarily on reason not religion and his explanation provides a way to understand a Christian approach to morality as grounded in nature. The final third of the book explores what religious practice and membership in a Christian denomination adds to the natural law approach. Father Piderit uses clear practical examples to show that positive goals are what motivate human beings. By breaking down the potentially abstract concept of morality into a set of intuitive practices guided by natural law Father Piderit provides young people and students with the tools to create a positive courtship and ultimately a solid marriage based on strong shared values and mutual respect.
