Engineering ,1868 Faith and Violence Thomas Merton,1968-10-15 Merton s classic Faith and Violence makes a powerful case for a theology of resistance that speaks with enduring urgency Violence in the modern world is a complex matter The majority of the world s most egregious acts of violence are not perpetrated at the level of the individual rather they occur at the hands of systematically organized bureaucracies It is this white collar violence that Merton addresses in Faith and Violence Writing at the height of the Vietnam war Merton masterfully illustrates the disastrous consequences of wielding and promoting violence As an alternative he proposes that Christians retrieve and embody a conception of love that seeks to win over one s adversaries as collaborators rather than crushing or humiliating them Merton s poignant reflections deal with issues ranging from the Vietnam War to the civil rights movement and the mid 20th century Death of God movement English Mechanic and World of Science ,1891 Common Sense ,1920 The Electrician ,1880

Naipaul and Toni Morrison* Alshaymaa Mohamed Ahmed,2022-07-07 Comparative Postcolonialism in the Works of V S Naipaul and Toni Morrison Fragmented Identities begins with an overview of its theoretical framework highlighting the intersectional relationship between postcolonial literature and comparative literature Tracing selected novels by Naipaul and Morrison the book takes as a starting point Fanon s three phase journey of the decolonizing process In the first phase of mimicry Naipaul s and Morrison s earlier novels represent the assimilation of indigenous people into dominant hegemonic cultures The second phase is envisioned as the re narration or re interpretation of the past and old legends of indigenous culture Morrison succeeds in asserting that her ancestors past is the only way to celebrate a cultural identity but Naipaul tends to criticize and neglect his past and his original indigenous culture The third phase marks the emergence of a revolutionary literature in which Naipaul and Morrison guide their people to hybridity as a new way of becoming and resisting the hegemonic dichotomies in dominant societies
