which took back responsibility for tourism in Northern Ireland when the power sharing executive was suspended in October 2002 but if a power sharing executive is re established then responsibility for tourism will revert to the restored Executive and accordingly responsibility for scrutiny of this policy area would revert to the Committees of a restored Assembly The Committee s report makes 27 recommendations to help Northern Ireland maximise its tourist potential and concludes that if government recognises the enormous economic impact of tourism and if private enterprise in co operation with statutory bodies can develop this recognition into a coherent strategy there is no reason why the success of tourism in the Republic of Ireland should not be replicated in Northern Ireland to the advantage of the whole island of Ireland and with Northern Ireland itself enjoying an equivalent status to Scotland and Wales as a UK tourist destination Local authority investments Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Communities and Local Government Committee,2009-06-11 Local authority Investments Seventh report of session 2008 09 Vol 2 Oral and written Evidence The American Recovery and
