Possessing Your Possession David O. Oyedepo, 2006 Pentecostalism and Prosperity K. Attanasi, A. Yong, 2012-02-27 While there are a growing number of researchers who are exploring the political and social aspects of the global Renewal movement few have provided sustained socio economic analyses of this phenomenon The editors and contributors to this volume offer perspectives in light of the growth of the Renewal movement in the two thirds world An Introduction to Theology in Africa and the Kpelelogical Foundations of Christian Theology Charles Amarkwei, 2021-10-12 In this book African Christian theology is introduced as a Kpelelogical reflection about life in the context of Africa which exists in the context of the cosmos Kpelelogy is the ontological mode of being grasped by the agape of God in Christ by grace through faith in the power of the Holy Spirit By this mode African theology is introduced by way of a definition a principle of paradox and a description as well as a critical view of the works of African theologians It examines the issues of method criteria and sources of doing theology in Africa and introduces the method of Kpelelogy as an African theological method This is explored further as a holistic theological method that is conscious of its being in existence and its life in history that is driven by faith in the triune God in a pneumatic experience that has been termed in this book as the Kpelelogical ontological mode The book is ecumenical in view of its engagement with Christian tradition It presents a Kpelelogical theology that is concretely African and universally Christian in the Okpelejen Wulormor the cosmic Jesus Christ who is and was but beyond the munus triplex Priest King and Prophet threefold office of Jesus Christ that is to come Hence it is a theology which embraces elements of Reformed Lutheran Methodist Pentecostal Charismatic Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox theological insights in the African context Religion Crossing Boundaries , 2010-08-18 Across the past twenty years major change has taken place in the structure of global society with respect to the nature of migration The predominant pattern since at least the eighteenth century had been for peoples to move to and settle in Western countries permanently with relatively little substantive interchange with their former homelands hence adopting the modes of articulation characteristic of their new societies a process expressed with respect to the USA for example as Americanization This pattern has now changed and there is considerable interaction between homeland and migrant peoples One of the places this has become especially important is in religious exchanges While some negative effects of this process may grab headlines there have also been extensive positive interactions not least among African peoples especially with respect to pentecostal and allied religious movements The chapters in this book illustrate the variety of these exchanges Contributors include Wale Adebani Edlyne Anugwom J Kwabena Asamoah Gyadu Marleen de Witte Laura Grillo Susan M Kilonzo Samuel Krinsky G raldine Mossi re Philomena Njeri Mwaura Joel Noret Ebenezer Obadare Damaris S Parsitau Mei Mei Sanford Linda van de Kamp and Rijk van Dijk

Global and Local Televangelism P. Thomas,P. Lee,2012-07-30 An exploration of the many faces of televangelism in our world today including Christian Islamic and Hindu The collection analyses the correspondences and major differences between global and local televangelism focusing on the main individuals involved in televangelism their practices and the social and cultural impact of their ministries Global Pentecostal and Charismatic Healing Candy Gunther

Brown,2011-02-24 Divine healing is an essential marker of the global phenomenon of Pentecostal and charismatic Christianity But although we know that healing is central in these movements we know surprisingly little about how divine healing beliefs and practices reflect the interplay of local and global patterns of cultural development The essays in this collection seek to discover what is the same and what is different about such beliefs and practices in diverse contexts trace formal and informal lines of cultural influence across geographic and national boundaries and ask how healing both reflects and contributes to larger processes of globalization Nigerian Pentecostalism Nimi Wariboko,2014 Part 1 Origins and spirituality of Nigerian Pentecostalism Sources of Nigerian pentecostalism The spell of the invisible Excremental visions in postcolonial Pentecostalism Desire and disgust ways of being for God The Pentecostal self from body to body politic Part 2 Ethical vision of Nigerian Pentecostal spirituality Politics between ontology and spiritual warfare Miracles sovereignty and community Altersovereignty and virtue of Pentecostal friendship Spirituality and the weight of blackness This neighbor cannot be loved invisibility and nudity of the Pentecostal other Pentecostalism and Nigerian society Pentecostalism in Africa ,2014-10-16 Within recent decades Pentecostal charismatic Christianity has moved from an initially peripheral position to become a force to be reckoned with within Africa s religious landscape Bringing together prominent Africanist scholars from a wide range of disciplines this book offers a comprehensive and multifaceted treatment of the ways in which Pentecostal Charismatic movements have shaped the orientations of African Christianity and extended their influence into other spheres of post colonial societies such as politics developmental work and popular entertainment Among other things the chapters of the book show how Pentecostal charismatic Christianity responds to social and cultural concerns of Africans and how its growth and increasingly assertive presence in public life have facilitated new kinds of social positioning and claims to political power Poverty, the Bible, and Africa Isaac Boaheng,2020-08-31 Poverty reduction is a worldwide concern yet if the church is to play an effective role in its alleviation an approach that is both biblical and contextual is required In Poverty the Bible and Africa Isaac Boaheng formulates a theology of poverty that engages Scripture African traditional wisdom and contemporary African concerns to create a paradigm for understanding and alleviating poverty in Africa Boaheng highlights that whatever our cultural context God frowns upon materialism extravagance and love for riches yet the author also demonstrates why a contextual theology must address people's societal and cultural needs alongside spiritual ones. If we desire a model for poverty reduction that is both theologically sound and contextually appropriate, we must facilitate an encounter between the teachings of Scripture and the socio-economic, political, and religious realities of a particular context. Combining in-depth cultural analysis with careful exegetical reflection, this book offers refreshing insight into the challenge of confronting poverty in Africa. Boaheng's approach, however, is relevant far beyond the continent and is transferable to any context where others are seeking to effectively understand and combat poverty.

The biblical and theological examination of prosperity theology Basilius Kasera, 2013-09-10 Master's Thesis from the year 2012 in the subject Theology Systematic Theology grade B course Theology Systematic Theology Ethics language English abstract This thesis conducts a biblical and theological analysis of the prosperity theology's (PT) impact amongst the poor. The main problem is to seek ways of effectively responding to the biblical, theological, and ideological problems raised by PT in Namibia without overlooking the social issues of poverty and suffering which this theology claims to be solving. The subject under discussion is found in various denominations but especially amongst neo-Pentecostal churches and it is not a standardised theology. Through interacting with the various views of the proponents and opponents, this research proposes that although PT may have certain positive aspects, it is a theology established upon faulty hermeneutics and is not helpful in providing biblically and theologically sound solutions to the problem of poverty. The research aims to show that Christians have a biblical mandate to care for the poor and to work towards assisting the poor to help themselves. However, we do not foresee a time in the here and now when poverty will be totally abolished. Living with this painful reality, we have the duty of continuously pointing people to the future hope in Christ. On the other hand, our looking to the future hope does not exempt us from doing our best in helping people in the here and now as God enables us. The research shows that the gospel is the hope for humanity and we should do away with methods and practices that do not have their roots in Scripture. Moreover, the church has a duty to warn against any theology that is conducted in an irresponsible manner and is given to reductionist arguments when it comes to providing solutions to human problems. Therefore, the research seeks to suggest biblical, theological, and practical ways of responding to the issue of poverty and ministry to the poor.

Ghana's New Christianity, New Edition Paul Gifford, 2004-07-15 A sober firsthand look at evangelical Christian churches in Accra, Ghana.

Angels for You! René Serge-Djanie, 2019-10-01 WHO ARE THE ANGELS OF GOD? To many, even Christians, angels are fairy tales and cunningly devised fables Many don't believe angels exist much more believe they are everyday personalities A few have told their experiences despising the mockery of unbelievers that suppose these spirit beings are only a mirage In this book you will discover the truth of their appearances after divine order as they appeared to notable men that walked with God They just don't appear with wings as many think They can appear without their wings which is often the case so we can relate to them without being afraid of them That's part of God's package for the redeemed In this unveiling mysteries of the ministry of angels Ren Serge Djanie gives a graphic presentation mixed with real life encounters with God's angels that propels the believer to thirst for the ministry of the angels of God Angels constitute The LORD of HOSTS They are sent as our messengers and servants In the Kingdom of God you can only share what you have experienced Ghana's New Christianity Paul Gifford, 2004 In sub-Saharan Africa over the last two decades there has been an explosion of Christianity This book sets out to identify its particular character focusing on a particular place Greater Accra the capital of Ghana Paul Gifford examines a wide range of Accra's new churches giving priority to mega churches Every dimension discourse theological vision worship rituals music media involvement use of the Bible conventions finances clientele is analysed Gifford argues that this Christianity is not otherworldly its emphasis is on success achievement wealth here and now Yet within this general orientation there is diversity At one end of the spectrum are churches that building on the traditional religious imagination see demonic forces everywhere blocking personal success In the churches the key factor is the special man of God who is understood to have the anointing to conquer these forces to reverse the curse that is holding the believer back At the other end is a strain of this new Christianity that discounts spiritual forces and sees victory resulting from the believer's own education and skills and from transforming culture The book also joins the debate over the role of this Christianity in modernizing economic and political structures It sets the scene by describing Ghana's political and economic situation in the decades when these churches were proliferating and outlines the current debate on the reasons for Africa's economic plight It is argued that although focusing on success and wealth can provide motivation in circumstances where it is so easy to despair the pervasive emphasis on miracles militates against any natural fostering of a new work ethic As for their political role some churches are easily co-opted others challenge the government but for spiritual reasons that provide little incentive to grapple with issues of governance by contrast Gifford finds one important church encouraging change of the entire political culture No other book has set forth the complex nature of Africa's new Christianity with such clarity or offered such a searching analysis of its power to tackle Africa's predicament Godliness for Gain E.
