Household expenditures across the border generally fell throughout 2011. But persistent unemployment and economic downturns in neighboring countries are expected to hit personal budgets hard in 2012, with the cost of the debt ceiling and recent spending cut adjustments and stimulus reducing the income needs along with the general budget situation. The negative impact of the stimulus on expenditure is not expected to be as large as you would guess either, and there are other general budget uncertainties that are expected to have a small impact.
