English for Intermediate Mulyadi, S.Ag., M.M., English for Intermediate is a developmental skill's text for beginners to Advanced students of English as a second or foreign language. While focusing on grammar, it promotes the development of all language skills in a variety of ways. It functions principally as a classroom teaching text but also serves as a comprehensive references text for students. The communicative acts respectful of this book are more fully developed and explicit. There are numerous opportunities for the teacher to exploit. The text often uses the student's own life experience at contacts and regularly introduces topics of interest to stimulate the free expression of ideas in structured as well as open discussion. The text supports the view of many experienced teachers that grammar based on the communicative approaches are not mutually exclusive but rather mutually supportive and can advantageously co-exist in the same language program even in the same class or in the same lesson.

ELT Revisited Marcela Malá, Zuzana Šaffková, 2016-08-17. This volume brings together selected papers presented during the 9th International Conference of the Association of Czech Teachers of English titled Teaching for Tomorrow and hosted by the English Department of the Faculty of Science, Humanities and Education at the Technical University of Liberec, Czech Republic. The conference brought together English Language Teaching (ELT) professionals from primary, secondary and tertiary education to discuss a variety of English as a Foreign Language (EFL) related topics ranging from reports on language research to viewpoints and insights on classroom practice. The contributions are grouped into three sections: a) Focus on Selected Language Topics, b) Increasing Learner Autonomy, and c) Innovative Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL) ideas. Papers were carefully chosen in order to appeal to a broad audience. Consequently, there are articles which have a mainly theoretical bent and those which have a more practical leaning. Although the conference was hosted in the Czech Republic and the majority of participants were from this country, the book is relevant to any context where English is taught as a foreign or second language. Therefore, teachers, advanced students of English language, researchers, and indeed anyone engaged in the EFL profession will find this collection both educational and thought provoking.
