but he finds his true love among the park jams where the Bronx's wild energy takes musical form His identity splits in two a hustler roaming record stores looking for beats and a budding rapper whose violent rep rings in the streets As Joe's day to day life becomes more fraught with betrayal addiction and death until he himself is shot and almost killed he gravitates toward the music that gives him both a voice to tell the stories of his young life and the tools he needs to create a new one The challenges never stop but neither does Joe This memoir written in Joe's own intensely compelling voice moves with the momentum of pulp fiction but underneath the tragicomedy and riveting tales of the streets and the industry is a thought provoking story about a generation of survivors raised in warlike conditions the life and death choices they had to make the friends they lost and mourned and the glittering lives they created from the ruins
