Third World Women's Literatures Barbara Fister, 1995-09-14 This reference volume serves as a companion to Third World women's literatures in English and in English translation by presenting entries on works, writers, and themes. Entries are chosen to present a balance of well-known writers and emerging ones, contemporary as well as historical writers, and representative selections of genres, literary styles, and themes. What plays have been written by women in the developing world? What books have been written by Sri Lankan or Brazilian women? Which works address themes of feminism or exile or politics in the Third World? These are the types of questions that can now be answered through Fister's companion to Third World women's literatures in English and English translation. Organized alphabetically, this reference volume presents entries on works, writers, and themes. Entries are chosen to present a balance of well-known writers and emerging ones, contemporary as well as historical writers, and representative selections of genres, literary styles, and themes. By providing information about and leads to works by and about Third World women, an important and largely marginalized literature, Fister has created a unique reference tool that will help teachers, scholars, and librarians both public and academic expand their definitions of the literary, making the voices of Third World women available in the same format in which many companions to Western literature do. An important book for all public and college-level libraries. Elements of Literature Probst, 1997 Ate Eol 2000 G 12 Holt Rinehart & Winston, 2000 Elements of Language Holt Rinehart & Winston, Holt, Rinehart and Winston Staff, 1999-04 Index to Fairy Tales, 1973-1977, 1985 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles, please visit www.rowmanlittlefield.com On Cassette, 1991 Index to Fairy Tales, 1973-1977, Including Folklore, Legends, and Myths in Collections, Fourth Supplement, 1979 An Illustrated Dictionary of Little-known Words from Literary Classics Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 1995 A comprehensive alphabetical reference abacus to zoot suit that supplies information on archaic or obscure terms in significant literature from the Bible and Shakespeare's plays to The Autobiography of Malcolm X and The Handmaid's Tale. There is an enemy who desires to stop us from receiving all that God has for us. The power of darkness is real. Spiritual warfare is real. It's when we understand that the battle is in the supernatural and not the natural that victory is ours. This is a story about how an
