Re-Composing YouTube Jonas Wolf, 2024-09-03

YouTube features a wide array of multimodal musical figurations, including fan-made music videos, musical aestheticisations of pre-circulating content, and musical self-performances. Jonas Wolf explores open-ended forms of musical creative relay on YouTube, delving into formal, imitative, affective, and non-institutional aspects of networked media remix and self-aestheticisation. Beyond creating value for non-musical fields of discourse, this study is directed at filling a gap in a largely ocularcentric domain of study. It provides a concise theory of vernacular composition within our time's total digital archive that accounts for socio-aesthetic phenomena and their relation to systems of knowledge control and discourse.

virtual communities that provide meaning and purpose to human life For some online residents virtual worlds are even keys to a post human future where technology can help us transcend mortal life Geraci argues that World of Warcraft and Second Life are virtually sacred because they do religious work They often do such work without regard for and frequently in conflict with traditional religious institutions and practices ultimately they participate in our sacred landscape as outsiders competitors and collaborators
