The Boston Marathon Tom Derderian; Bill Rodgers, 2014-04-01 Offering an inside look at the most famous marathon in the world this exploration traces the Boston Marathon's 26.2 mile route from the starting line on narrow Main Street in Hopkinton to the Boylston Street finish line in downtown Boston bringing to life the history personalities pivotal moments and individual character of each city the race traverses The Boston Marathon includes well researched briefs on topics including Metcalf's Mill at Ashland the unmarked starting point of the first race in 1897 the infamous 1967 battle over Kathrine Switzer's attempt to compete five years before women were allowed and other vital race day elements The book also includes a tribute to the victims of the tragic 2013 bombing near the finish line This is a supremely entertaining glimpse at the history of the greatest running event in the world from wacky entrants to hard fisted managers tortured disappointments and glorious triumph

Reaching Up for Manhood Geoffrey Canada, 2000-11-07 From a troubled youth navigating the mean streets of the South Bronx to an inspiring educational activist who evokes praise from the likes of President Barack Obama Geoffrey Canada has made a remarkable personal journey that cemented his dedication to underserved youth His award winning work was featured in Davis Guggenheim's documentary Waiting for Superman and he has been hailed by media activists teachers and national leaders Michelle Obama called him one of my heroes and Oprah Winfrey refers to him as an angel from God Here Canada draws on his years of work with inner city youth and on his own turbulent boyhood to offer a moving and revelatory look at the little understood emotional lives of boys And who better for this task than the man Elizabeth Mehren of the Los Angeles Times calls one of this country's leading advocates for youth

Dare to run Amit Sheth, 2015-02-17 Dare to run is the inspiring story of Amit and Neepa Sheth a husband wife duo who took up running as a sport in their late 30s In a collection of essays written over five years Amit a self acclaimed couch potato takes us long with him on an incredible journey of determination discovery courage self awareness and self belief He takes us with him from his first almost fatal 200 meter jog on a beach in Mumbai to the finish line of The Ultimate Human Race the 89 km Comrades Ultra Marathon in South Africa Along the way Amit uses a combination of poetry philosophy and scriptures to explain his unique perspective on life religion spirituality and running This is a book not just about running but about the need to relentlessly follow your dreams and passions no matter what they may be It is a book which encourages you to be the best you can be in all walks of life while at the same time maintaining a certain sense of balance and appreciation for the beauty of existence It encourages you to enjoy the gift of life to its fullest The essays describe the journey of an ordinary husband wife team doing extraordinary feats while having to balance family work training and injuries This is a book from which a novice runner will draw inspiration and motivation and it also a book in which an elite athlete will recognize his own strengths and weaknesses It describes how ordinary people push the limits of their ability to achieve their goals passions and dreams and it will inspire the reader to do the same It is a book to be read not only by those who run but those who desire to run It is a book which dares you to run
