Buying and Believing Steven Kemper, 2001-05 Advertising is a central part of the global system of commerce and culture Every day it exposes consumers around the world to practices associated with the West urban life prosperity and modernity One consequence of this exposure is that it frees people's imaginations from time and place and imposes a new and foreign reality In this book Steven Kemper looks at a parallel trend arguing that advertising firms in Nairobi Caracas and Colombo also domesticate the imagination insinuating images into people s minds of the traditional as well as the modern the local as much as the global Drawing upon fieldwork conducted over thirty years Kemper examines the Sri Lankan advertising industry to show how executives draw on their skills as folk ethnographers to Sri Lankanize commodities and practices to make them locally desirable essentially producing new forms of Sri Lankan culture Addressing many of the most pressing agendas of contemporary anthropology Buying and Becoming breaks new ground in studies of culture and globalization

D. Lakshman,Philippe Régnier,Piyadāsa Sēnānāyaka,1994 Irrigation Water Pricing François Molle,Jeremy Berkoff,2007-01-01 Much hope has been vested in pricing as a means of helping to regulate and rationalize water management notably in the irrigation sector The pricing of water has often been applied universally using general and ideological policies and not considering regional environmental and economic differences Almost 15 years after the emphasis laid at the Dublin and Rio conferences on treating water as an economic good a comprehensive review of how such policies have helped manage water resources an irrigation use is necessary The case studies presented here offer a reassessment of current policies by evaluating their objectives and constraints and often demonstrating their failure by not considering the regional context They will therefore contribute to avoiding costly and misplaced reforms and help design water policies that are based on a deeper understanding of the factors which eventually dictate their effectiveness Solved Papers CAPF Assistant Commandant 2022 Arihant
