

Wedding

When James was in high school he had the likes for a girl, named Savannah. He loved her enough to stare at her in social study class because he sat behind her, years later he went to her house to ask her if she wanted to marry him and she said yes and he got happy and got children, and she died last month.

Career

Lebron's career is to be a basketball player. And today he is in the NBA and with the miami heat. And he is a great player, but he might get transfered to the lakers in 2014, with Carmello Anthony and Kobe Bryant. And he used to play Football for st-vincent-st-mary high. Further more he was a great football player.

Team

Miami heat is a professional basketball team based on Miami, Florida, United state. The team is a member of the southeast Division in the Eastern of the NBA. And where they play there home games is American Airlines Arena in Downtown Miami. And Formed in 1988 as one of the NBA four expansion franchises. Therefore Miami is the best team in the world to me.

English Language Arts, Grade 6 Module 1 PCG Education, 2015-10-01 Paths to College and Career Jossey Bass and PCG Education are proud to bring the Paths to College and Career English Language Arts ELA curriculum and professional development resources for grades 6-12 to educators across the country. Originally developed for EngageNY and written with a focus on the shifts in instructional practice and student experiences, the standards require Paths to College and Career includes daily lesson plans, guiding questions, recommended texts, scaffolding strategies, and other classroom resources. Paths to College and Career is a concrete and practical ELA instructional program that engages students with compelling and complex texts. At each grade level, Paths to College and Career delivers a yearlong curriculum that develops all students' ability to read closely and engage in text-based discussions, build evidence-based claims and arguments, conduct research, and write from sources, and expand their academic vocabulary. Paths to College and Career's instructional resources address the needs of all learners, including students with disabilities, English language learners, and gifted and talented students. This enhanced curriculum provides teachers with freshly designed Teacher Guides that make the curriculum more accessible and flexible, a Teacher Resource Book for each module that includes all of the materials educators need to manage instruction, and Student Journals that give students learning tools for each module and a single place to organize and document their learning. As the creators of the Paths ELA curriculum for grades 6-12, PCG Education provides a professional learning program that ensures the success of the curriculum. The program includes Nationally recognized professional development from an organization that has been immersed in the new standards since their inception. Blended learning experiences for teachers and leaders that enrich and extend the learning. A train-the-trainer program that builds capacity and provides resources and individual support for embedded leaders and coaches. Paths offers schools and districts a unique approach to ensuring college and career readiness for all students, providing state-of-the-art curriculum and state-of-the-art implementation.

How to Teach Writing Across the Curriculum: Ages 6-8 Sue Palmer, 2010-09-13 Provides a range of practical suggestions for teaching non-fiction writing skills and linking them to children's learning across the entire curriculum. This title provides techniques for using speaking and listening, drama, and games to prepare for writing. It also includes planning frameworks and skeletons to promote thinking skills.

Teaching Dilemmas and Solutions in Content-Area Literacy, Grades 6-12 Peter Smagorinsky, 2014-08-19 Because literacy is not just the English teacher's job. Think literacy is just for English teachers. Not anymore. Nor should it be when you consider that each discipline has its own unique values and means of expression. These days it's up to all teachers to communicate what it means to be literate in their disciplines. Here finally is a book ambitious enough to tackle the topic across all major subject areas. Engage in this cross-disciplinary conversation with seasoned teachers and university researchers and learn how to develop curriculum and instruction that are responsive to students' needs across English language arts, science, social studies, mathematics, visual space, and music, and drama Peter Smagorinsky and his colleagues provide an insider's lens on both the states of their fields and their specific literacy demands including Reviews of current issues and state of the art research informing literacy education Scenario based activities for reflection and discussion typifying the dilemmas and challenges faced by practicing teachers Considerations of the textual forms and conventions required in each discipline Specific policy recommendations Read this book on your own for immediate suggestions on how to improve literacy instruction within your course of study Better yet share it with colleagues and participate in a larger conversation about how your literacy expectations influence the ways students read and produce texts in other disciplines

Teaching New Literacies in Grades 4-6 Barbara Moss, Diane Lapp, 2009-11-24 Upper elementary students encounter a sometimes dizzying array of traditional and nontraditional texts both in and outside of the classroom This practical handbook helps teachers in grades 4-6 harness the instructional potential of fiction poetry and plays informational texts graphic novels digital storytelling Web based and multimodal texts hip hop advertisements math problems and many other types of texts Twenty four complete lessons promote critical literacy skills such as comprehending analyzing and synthesizing information and using writing to communicate new ideas and pose questions Snapshots of diverse classrooms are accompanied by clear explanations of the research base for instruction in each genre Ready to use reproducibles are included
