No Salvation Outside the Poor Jon Sobrino ,2015-02-25 No Salvation Outside the Poor Jon Sobrino,2014 The Eye of the Needle Jon Sobrino,2008 In this powerful book the great Latin American theologian Jon Sobrino shows that global capitalism is driven by a cruel dynamic of oppression and greed which inevitably dehumanises people destroys the human family and threatens mother earth He argues it is the poor who paradoxically offer the only way to salvation for the World We must work for a new civilisation that will give everyone access to material and cultural goods that make for a truly human life

African Catholic Priests Jordan Nyenyembe,2011 This is a timely book on the contemporary African priesthood Just as in other parts of the globe the African priesthood currently faces a serious crisis of identity The unfolding crisis puts stress on the clerics and augments the tension with lay people The model of the Church as Family of God opted for by the Church in Africa is a new milestone that puts pressure on Catholic priests to define their role in the new context The identity and image of priests need to be specified as lay ministries render the Church active from the grassroots Reflection about the ministry of the clergy in Africa is urgent and indeed it is an important aspect of enculturation Nyenyembe demonstrates an admirable capacity to situate his rich theological reflections in an African context Sin and the Vulnerability of Embodied Life

Charlotte Bray,2025-01-16 This book explores how Catholics should speak about sin and grace in a world where structural injustice holds sway causing violence and harm Bray brings diverse voices into creative dialogue to explore why unjust social situations can properly be called sin from a Catholic theological perspective and how this sin can be understood to impact one's agency freedom and historical condition vis vis God Discussing disparate thinkers such as John Paul II Judith Butler Thomas Aquinas and key Latin American liberation theologians Bray deepens and constructively develops the Catholic understanding of social sin She argues that the language of social sin presents us with an idea more theologically profound than just the identification of structural injustice it depicts the power of collective human sinfulness to shape our lives and environments in ways which harm our relations with God one another and the rest of the created world Class Struggle in the New Testament Robert J. Myles,2018-12-31 Class Struggle in the New Testament engages the political and economic realities of the first century to unmask the mediation of class through several New Testament texts and traditions Essays span a range of subfields presenting class struggle as the motor force of history by responding to recent debates historical data and new evidence on the political economic world of Jesus Paul and the Gospels Chapters address collective struggles in the Gospels the Roman military and class the usefulness of categories like peasant retainer and middling groups for understanding the world of Jesus the class basis behind the origin of archangels the Gospels as products of elite culture the implication of capitalist ideology upon biblical interpretation and the New Testament's use of slavery metaphors populist features and gifting practices This book will become a definitive reference point for future discussion Catholic

Suspended God Maeve Louise Heaney, 2022-03-24 Heaney traces the hidden history of music's presence in Christian thought including its often unrecognized influence on key figures such as von Balthasar Barth and Bonhoeffer She uses Lonergan's theological framework to explore musical composition as a theological act showing why when and how music is a useful symbolic form The book introduces eleven ground breaking theologians and each chapter offers an entry point into the thought of the theologian being presented through an original piece of music which can be found on the companion website <https://blossompub.com/suspended-god> Heaney argues that music is a universally important means of making sense of life with which theology needs to engage as a means of expression and of development Musical composition is presented as an appropriate and even necessary form of doing theology in its quest to engage with the past mediate truth to the present and tradition it into the future

Interfaith Dialogue Edmund Kee-Fook Chia, 2016-09-15 This book addresses issues central to today's Catholic Church focusing on the relationship between various religions in different contexts and regions across the world The diverse array of contributors present an inclusively interfaith enterprise investigating a wide range of encounters and perspectives The essays include approaches from the Jewish Muslim Buddhist and Bah traditions in a variety of geographic contexts Contributors reflect on Muslims in the West Christian Buddhist social activism and on Chinese Indian and Japanese religions The volume also explores the experiences of communities that are often marginalized and overlooked such as the Aborigines and Torres Strait Islanders of Australia and the Karen tribal peoples of Thailand Contributors examine the works of the Focolare G len and Rissh K sei kai movements and integrate the vision of Raimon Panikkar and Ken Wilber Chapters incorporate discussions of dialogue documents such as Nostra Aetate and Dabru Emet and methodologies such as Receptive Ecumenism Comparative Theology and Scriptural Reasoning Among other goals the book seeks to offer glimpses into interfaith dialogues across the world and examine what Christians can learn from other religions and global contexts

Christ Crucified in a Suffering World Nathan D. Hieb, 2013-09-01 What is the connection between Christian doctrine and concrete social action This question marks the often unarticulated divide between systematic theology and liberation theology each often emphasizing one primarily or formally over the other Examining the work of Karl Barth T F Torrance and Jon Sobrino here Nathan Hieb contests this bifurcation specifically around the nodal points of the crucifixion or the doctrine of atonement and the context of suffering This book is an innovative study that bridges the boundaries of method doctrine and praxis creating a strong theological and action oriented relationship between systematic and liberation theology
