Ecopolis Paul F. Downton, 2008-11-19 From 2008 for the first time in human history half of the world s population now live in cities Yet despite a wealth of literature on green architecture and planning there is to date no single book which draws together theory from the full range of disciplines from architecture planning and ecology which we must come to grips with if we are to design future cities which are genuinely sustainable Paul Downton's Ecopolis takes a major step along this path It highlights the urgent need to understand the role of cities as both agents of change and means of survival at a time when climate change has finally grabbed world attention and it provides a framework for designing cities that integrates knowledge both academic and practical from a range of relevant disciplines Identifying key theorists practitioners places and philosophies the book provides a solid theoretical context which introduces the concept of urban fractals and goes on to present a series of design and planning tools for achieving Sustainable Human Ecological Development SHED Combining knowledge from diverse fields to present a synthesis of urban ecology the book will provide a valuable resource for students researchers and practitioners in architecture construction planning geography and the traditional life sciences Entrepreneurial Community Gardens Gail Whiting Feenstra,1999 Public Space Design Everett Sinclair,2025-03-04 Public Space Design explores the critical role of communal areas like parks and plazas in shaping vibrant urban environments It examines how well designed public spaces foster social interaction and contribute to overall urban quality of life The book uniquely emphasizes inclusive design arguing that these spaces should be accessible to everyone regardless of background Discover how public spaces have evolved from ancient gathering spots to modern urban parks reflecting societal changes and technological advancements The book progresses from fundamental concepts to practical strategies for creating successful and sustainable communal areas Case studies of global public spaces illustrate diverse design approaches addressing varying urban contexts By understanding the historical context principles of urban design and the importance of community engagement Public Space Design provides actionable strategies for urban planners architects and community stakeholders Ultimately the book argues that thoughtfully designed public spaces are essential infrastructure supporting social equity environmental sustainability and economic vitality It highlights how these spaces should be viewed as more than just amenities but as integral components of healthy and resilient urban communities Community Gardening as Social Action Claire Nettle,2016-05-23 There has been a resurgence of community gardening over the past decade with a wide range of actors seeking to get involved from health agencies aiming to increase fruit and vegetable consumption to radical social movements searching for symbols of non capitalist ways of relating and occupying space Community gardens have become a focal point for local activism in which people are working to contribute to food security question the erosion of public space conserve and improve urban environments develop technologies of sustainable food production foster community engagement and create neighbourhood solidarity Drawing on in depth case studies and social movement theory Claire Nettle provides a new empirical and theoretical understanding of community gardening as a site of collective social action This provides not only a more nuanced and complete understanding of community gardening but also highlights its potential challenges to notions of activism community democracy and culture Starting a Community Garden Helen C. Harrison,1984 Making Community Design Work Umut Toker,2017-11-08 Since the earliest settlements people have deliberated the issues that affect their future together Making Community Design Work shows how planners can guide the process toward effective decision making and beneficial community design This well crafted book distills decades of community design experience into a sound conceptual framework of value to practicing planners as well as planning students Umut Toker covers a broad range of planning scales and introduces field tested tools for participatory decision making at regional city community and site specific levels To succeed any planning project must address both the physical space and its users From setting goals to evaluating results Making Community Design Work helps planners navigate the process of creating environments that meet the needs of the people they serve Participatory Design and Self-building in Shared Urban Open Spaces Carolin Mees,2018-04-12 The book investigates the development of community gardens with self built structures which have existed as a shared public open space land use form in New York City s low come neighborhoods like the South Bronx since the 1970s These gardens have continued to be part of the urban landscape until today despite conflicting land use interests changing residents groups and contradictory city planning Both community gardens and self built structures are created in a participatory design and self built effort by urban residents and are an expression of the individual gardeners preferences their cultural background and the decisions made by the managing residents group in regards to the needs of their neighborhood Ultimately community gardens with self built structures are an expression of the people s will to commonly use this land for open and enclosed structures next to their homes in the city and need to be included in future urban planning Growing Community Claire Nettle,2010 Developing Communities 6e Susan Kenny,Tammy Hand,2022-10-27 The bestselling Developing Communities provides a comprehensive introduction to the theory processes and practices of community development It offers insights into the challenges of this demanding field and considers the ways in which it can empower citizens This sixth edition aims to expand on community development values community development in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities factors impacting community development now and future challenges The visually appealing layout combines with student friendly language and numerous local case studies to keep students engaged Instructor resources include a NEW instructor guide revision questions and revised PowerPoint presentations Ashburton Avenue Master Plan and Urban Renewal Plan/Mulford Gardens HOPE VI Revitalization Plan ,2006 The Essential Guide to Web3 Vijay Krishnan,2023-11-30 Get up and running with blockchain smart contracts NFTs DAOs and decentralization in no time with the help of this comprehensive guide Key Features Get to grips with Web3 NFTs DeFi and smart contract development Create fungible and non fungible tokens explore DAOs and more Build powerful apps using Ethereum to secure transactions and create smart contracts Purchase of the print or Kindle book includes a free PDF eBook Book DescriptionWeb3 the new blockchain based web is often hailed as the future of the internet Driven by technologies such as cryptocurrencies NFTs DAOs decentralized finance and more Web3 s aim is to give individuals more control over the web communities they belong to Whether you re a beginner or an experienced developer

Power at the Roots Miranda J. Martinez, 2010-09-25 Through direct engagement with gardeners activists and residents Miranda Martinez shows the breadth and diversity of the community gardening movement and how these groups inserted themselves into local politics and development to create change She demonstrates how real people are effective as social forces amid large scale urban change and looks at the complexities and contradictions involved in transformations of urban neighborhoods One of the most important contributions of this study is its focus on the Puerto Ricans of the Lower East Side and their struggle to sustain its Latinidad It goes deeply into the ethnic and cultural significance at the neighborhood and personal level to show the contradictory meanings of gentrification to Puerto Ricans and others and more importantly the ways that the history and culture of Puerto Ricans are ignored devalued and erased By going to the grassroots this book vividly demonstrates how Puerto Ricans interact with the global and local trends involved in gentrification and how the struggles against displacement can alter the boundaries of the process

Mothers United Andrea Dyrness, 2013-11-30 In urban American school systems the children of recent immigrants and low income parents of color disproportionately suffer from overcrowded classrooms lack of access to educational resources and underqualified teachers The challenges posed by these problems demand creative solutions that must often begin with parental intervention But how can parents without college educations American citizenship English literacy skills or economic stability organize to initiate change on behalf of their children and their community In Mothers United Andrea Dyrness chronicles the experiences of five Latina immigrant mothers in Oakland California one of the most troubled urban school districts in the country as they become informed and engaged advocates for their children s education These women who called themselves Madres Unidas Mothers United joined a neighborhood group of teachers and parents to plan a new small and autonomous neighborhood based school to replace the overcrowded Whitman School Collaborating with the author among others to conduct interviews and focus groups with teachers parents and students these mothers moved from isolation and marginality to take on unfamiliar roles as researchers and community activists while facing resistance from within the local school district Mothers United illuminates the mothers journey to create their own space centered around the kitchen table that enhanced their capacity to improve their children s lives At the same time Dyrness critiques how community organizers teachers and educational policy makers despite their democratic rhetoric repeatedly asserted their right as experts reproducing the injustice they hoped to overcome A powerful inspiring story about self learning consciousness raising and empowerment Mothers United offers important lessons for school reform movements everywhere Unearthing Lifestances Lori G. Beaman, Ryan T. Cragun, Douglas Ezzy, 2025-11-03

A growing number of people across the western world are identifying as nonreligious This book examines this shift through the lens of community gardens We do not ask people what they believe in ways that are abstracted from their everyday lives Rather by focusing on gardening we enter the world of action what people do the practices of their everyday lives Drawing on interviews from community gardeners in Argentina Australia Brazil Canada England Finland Norway Northern Ireland and the United States the book explores themes of community building ritual ethics and relationships with humans non humans and the natural world arguing for their conceptualization as lifestances The book reveals a shifting sensibility about the relationship between humans and the world around them That relationship is shifting from a vertical relationship to a horizontal one from a relationship of human dominance to a relationship of shared responsibility and equality This is possible because there is an increasing recognition that the current hierarchical model based in religious teachings and human exceptionalism is untenable Community gardens offer an ideal vantage point from which to explore these changes The
