and often globally These insights provide the foundations to enhance regulatory design and the book's conclusion recommends some innovative directions for regulatory interventions to sustain the safe design and construction of machinery

Putting the Charter to Work David M. Beatty, 1987 The entrenchment of a Charter of Rights and Freedoms in the Canadian constitution raises a host of fundamental issues both theoretical and practical As the American experience makes abundantly clear expanding the focus of judicial review means that the symbiosis between law and politics will become more intimate and intertwined than ever before Putting the Charter to Work David Beatty investigates the extent to which judicial review offers a means to the enhancement of social justice in our community Safety or Profit? Theo Nichols, David Walters, 2016-12-05 As the title Safety or Profit suggests health and safety at work needs to be understood in the context of the wider political economy This book brings together contributions informed by this view from internationally recognized scholars It reviews the governance of health and safety at work with special reference to Australia Canada Sweden and the United Kingdom Three main aspects are discussed The restructuring of the labor market this is considered with respect to precarious work and to gender issues and their implications for the health and safety of workers The neoliberal agenda this is examined with respect to the diminished power of organized labor decriminalization and new governance theory including an examination of how well the health and safety at work regimes put in place in many industrial societies about forty years ago have fared and how distinctive the recent emphasis on self regulation in several countries really is The role of evidence there is a dearth of evidence based policy The book examines how policy on health and safety at work is formulated at both company and state levels Cases considered include the scant regard paid to evidence by an official inquiry into future strategy in Canada the lack of evidence based policy and the reluctance to observe the precautionary principle with respect to work related cancer in the United Kingdom and the failure to learn from past mistakes in the Deepwater Horizon disaster in the Gulf of Mexico
