for children in grades K-4. The activities will expose elementary school aged children to environmental STEM career fields at an early age. There are also GIS geographic information systems activities for children by ESRI. The lesson plan will definitely be beneficial for children with low science test scores. The lesson plan is also beneficial to parents or elementary teachers who are homeschooling. Activities can be taken any place anytime and anywhere. An internet connection is required on a desktop computer, tablet, laptop or smartphone.

Resources in Education, 2001-04 Teaching New Literacies in Grades K-3 Barbara Moss, Diane Lapp, 2009-11-30 Even the youngest readers and writers in today's classrooms can benefit enormously from engagement with a wide range of traditional and nontraditional texts. This teacher friendly handbook is packed with creative strategies for introducing K-3 students to fiction, poetry and plays, informational texts, graphic novels, digital storytelling, Web based and multimodal texts, hip hop advertisements, math problems and many other types of texts. Prominent authorities explain the research base underlying the book's 23 complete lessons and provide practical activities and assessments for promoting decoding, fluency, comprehension and other key literacy skills. Snapshots of diverse classrooms bring the material to life; helpful reproducibles are included.

New Standards-Based Lessons for the Busy Elementary School Librarian Joyce Keeling, 2020-02-06 Busy elementary librarians need help applying the new AASL Standards Framework especially in collaboration with social studies teachers seeking to apply the social studies standards framework. This book shows a path forward for both. This book will be a tremendous help to the busy elementary school librarian who is working with busy elementary social studies teachers. As they are designing and co-teaching library based lessons based on the Social Studies Standards Framework, the English Literacy Common Core Standards and the new American Association of School Librarians AASL Standards Learners Framework, these reproducible lessons will enhance planning and implementation. You'll get ready to use lessons as well as model lessons to adapt to the needs of your own curriculum and students. All standards are applied with needed handouts and other tools and current lists of recommended resources are provided. Lessons are coordinated to common elementary social studies curricula at indicated grade levels but can be adapted as template lessons as needed. Current resource lists aid librarians in collection development to support new and current standards.
