While there is growing evidence of the importance of marine ecosystems for our societies evidence shows also that pressures from human activities on these ecosystems are increasing putting the health of marine ecosystems at stake worldwide Hence Blue Economy is becoming an important component of future socio economic development strategies e.g. this is called Blue Growth in Europe that eventually can result in increasing pressures at sea and despite the current regulatory framework in particular with the Oceans Act in USA or Canada and the Marine Strategy Framework Directive in Europe it is likely that this situation will continue in the future Ensuring all those connected to the sea directly or indirectly gain a better understanding of the importance of the seas the human sea interactions and opportunities to act better and reduce impacts from human pressures is central to Ocean Literacy OL Receiving increasing attention in Europe and USA OL is a challenge for all parts of society educators 2 the role OL could play in interaction with innovation regulation economic incentive social norms to support human capital development as key component of sustainable growth and 3 pre conditions for effective OL for different sectors and target groups Questions relevant to OL include Which knowledge produced by whom to share and how Who to target and how to effectively reach those targeted How to design OL initiatives including by mobilizing those targeted via living lab approaches e.g. to ensure effective OL and pave the way for behavior change What are the knowledge gaps that limit our capacity to design effective OL As scientists it is likely you have many more questions to offer and discuss

Indian Ocean Region Manoj Gupta, 2010-08-09 It is a privilege to introduce the reader to this book as I believe that it will make a significant contribution to given the difficulties in the knowledge of the Indian Ocean developing cooperation in the Indian Ocean region There have been numerous failed efforts at regional cooperation in different fora in the Indian Ocean As a result of the land based orientation of the people in the region the importance for countries to develop the power to govern the sea has largely been ignored The maritime approach taken by Manoj Gupta to the Indian Ocean as a region in international relations offers a timely and critical assessment of the potential for regional cooperation and ocean governance The political leadership in the region can no longer ignore the need for cooperation in maritime affairs in the Indian Ocean This book enriches the literature on Indian Ocean issues as it argues convincingly that the security of nations economic well being of the people and health of the Indian Ocean cannot be divested from one another All are fundamentally dependant on the ability of the countries in the region to individually and collectively exert the power to govern the sea
