Newspapers - A New Eldorado for Historians? Estelle Bunout, Maud Ehrmann, Frédéric Clavert, 2022-12-31 The application of digital technologies to historical newspapers has changed the research landscape historians were used to An Eldorado Despite undeniable advantages the new digital affordance of historical newspapers also transforms research practices and confronts historians with new challenges Drawing on a growing community of practices the impresso project invited scholars experienced with digitised newspaper collections with the aim of encouraging a discussion on heuristics source criticism and interpretation of digitized newspapers This volume provides a snapshot of current research on the subject and offers three perspectives how digitisation is transforming access to and exploration of historical newspaper collections how automatic content processing allows for the creation of new layers of information and finally what analyses this enhanced material opens up impresso Media Monitoring of the Past is an interdisciplinary research project that applies text mining tools to digitised historical newspapers and integrates the resulting data into historical research workflows by means of a newly developed user interface The question of how best to adapt text mining tools and their use by humanities researchers is at the heart of the impresso enterprise Reframing Campus Conflict Jennifer Meyer Schrage, Nancy Geist Giacomini, 2023-07-03 This fully revised and updated second edition builds upon the original vision of the first which was to give voice to diverse and inclusive perspectives identities and practices and to enact the principle that student conduct and conflict response must be based upon foundations of social justice and restorative justice to disrupt and transform overly legalistic and escalated management applications in student conduct administration The Spectrum Model Schrage Thompson 2008 approach centers advocacy for inclusive conflict excellence by expanding traditional adjudication pathways to include dialogue conflict coaching mediation restorative practices and shuttle diplomacy for a more robust and inclusive expression of conflict and conduct practices In the intervening decade this co edited work has become more relevant than ever as colleges and universities continue to be the targets of litigation activists lawmakers and public officials who have for instance changed the Title IX rules for responding to sexual misconduct Civility hate crimes activism immigration nationalism and free speech are all again on the forefront of challenges impacting the current campus climate New chapters cover these and other issues including the unprecedented COVID 19 pandemic response and impact on equity and justice in higher education and amplified calls for racial justice and police reform The book is further enhanced by chapter case studies summaries and questions for dialogue to encourage further reflection by the reader and bolster the usefulness of the work as a textbook and campus training guide The second edition is a must have resource for broad stakeholders invested in inclusive conflict excellence and principled leadership in education in the midst of a shifting and increasingly polarized landscape This includes legal counsel higher education presidents senior student affairs administrators and faculty leadership as well as student conduct practitioners across conduct boards hearing and appeal officers residential and organizational staff engaged in student facing campus climate work Reframing Campus Conflict further offers transferable content that supports inclusive conflict excellence inquiry and application in graduate programs K 12 special education and human resource management practices This book is for all educators administrators practitioners and leaders committed to engaging campus conflict work through the inclusive lenses of social restorative transformative and procedural justice This is also available as a set with Student Conduct Practice Second Edition Teaching and Learning in the Face of Adversity Michelle L. Trujillo, Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, 2024-09-03 You may encounter many defeats but you must not be defeated In fact it may be necessary to encounter the defeats so you can know who you are what you can rise from how you can still come out of it Maya Angelou Adversity is all around us Although we can t always avoid it we can prepare ourselves and our students to respond in a healthy and hopeful way Teaching and Learning in the Face of Adversity is a practical and heartfelt book that empowers educators with applicable strategies to respond to challenges inspire students and foster a positive school environment The authors share the critical skills that educators and students can cultivate to elevate the ability to respond to barriers challenges and setbacks plus Practical strategies insights and reflection prompts Menus of practices to promote student agency belonging relationships and repair harm The voices of real teachers students and educational leaders The range of challenges that can arise in our work and effective ways to respond Adversity may be ever present but with the resources in this book we can empower ourselves our colleagues and our students to persevere in the face of it
