Christianity and Freedom: Volume 2, Contemporary Perspectives Allen D. Mediation in Europe EUFORUMRJ,2000-06-21 This publication is an initiative of the European Forum for Victim Offender Mediation and Restorative Justice and results from its first conference which was held in Leuven Belgium from 27-29 October 1999. The first six chapters consider victim offender mediation and restorative justice from a more theoretical point of view. These analyses of theoretical, legal, policy, ethical and societal aspects of mediation and restorative justice have been written by well known scholars in this field. The second part of the book consists of overviews of the situation with regard to victim offender mediation in the eight European countries in which it is currently the most developed: Austria, Belgium, Finland, France, Germany, Norway, Poland and the United Kingdom. For these last chapters a multitude of information was collected in each of these countries and this is presented and analysed comparatively. The following topics are discussed for each of the countries: the history of victim offender mediation in that particular country, the legal context, policy and implementation, the number of programmes and the way they function, the practice of mediation, the number and characteristics of cases, evaluation and research, and finally challenges, obstacles and expectations for the future. This is probably the first time that such extensive reports on the practice of victim offender mediation in Europe have been brought together in this way. In publishing this book, the European Forum is seeking to contribute to the realisation of one of its objectives, namely providing people all over Europe and beyond with information on victim offender mediation and restorative justice in other countries. Restorative justice is a relatively new field and is still very much evolving. A full exchange of information and ideas will contribute to this process.

Justice That Transforms, Volume One Wayne Northey, 2020-01-09 Restorative Justice was a term and concept largely unused before the mid 1970s. Wayne Northey happened to be in on the ground floor of facilitating its worldwide adoption as a challenge to Western retributive justice systems ultimately to violent responses to conflict domestically and internationally. The most replicated early model of Restorative Justice based on the well known Elmira Case was a Canadian first initially dubbed Victim Offender Reconciliation Project (VORP). The author became its second director in 1977. The term mediation later displaced the more religious word reconciliation as the model spread outside Christian moorings and program displaced the initially more tentative project. At seminary Northey had learned to think through one's vocation theologically. He began in that vein writing and publishing on this profound call for a systemic paradigm shift and has been at it ever since. This publication is volume 1 of a series of his collected writings of which two additional volumes may be found online. Two or three further volumes are projected.

Dispute Resolution Carole L. Hinchcliff, 1991

Mediation Carrie Menkel-Meadow, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2001. This volume of essays explores the theoretical and jurisprudential bases of mediated forms of dispute resolution from legal, anthropological, sociological, psychological and political sources. It also presents ongoing disputes about the field itself including its threat to conventional litigation and justice seeking adjudication and its promise in providing more humane and tailored solutions to human problems.
