Equivocation in Early Modern England Literature Rhetoric Theology explores ideas about concealing the truth while seemingly revealing it It is about the conflict whether historical or fictional between the interrogator s desire to gain information the suspect s desire to hide the information and the divine prohibition against lying The Gunpowder Plot supposedly led to the revelation of the doctrine of equivocation a secret teaching of the Roman Catholic Church that enabled concealing one s intentions and knowledge without lying This book examines conflicting meanings of equivocation to show how contemporary writers made sense of the theological political debates and how this in turn shaped their writings and understanding of how language works It is an intellectual history of equivocation tracing its evolution from antiquity to the present through an analysis of works by Euripides Virgil Shakespeare Donne rhetoricians from Cicero to Melanchthon and theological polemicists including Henry Garnet Robert Persons George Abbot Thomas Morton and Isaac Casaubon It combines a curiosity about equivocation as a linguistic philosophical and rhetorical notion that was keenly exploited by secular writers with a scrutiny of the cultural political and religious processes that contributed to its development It explores the impact of sixteenth and seventeenth century literature education networks of correspondence and controversies on the concept of ambiguity It reveals how encounters with various forms of deception including lying strategic silence dissimulation and equivocation resulted in an ever growing anxiety about and fascination with ambiguity It provides a radically new evaluation of equivocation that as Macbeth puts it in his final despair lies like truth     Sacred Liturgy Alcuin Reid,2014-04-07 The Sacred Liturgy is not a hobby for specialists It is central to all our endeavors as disciples of Jesus Christ This profound reality cannot be over emphasized We must recognize the primacy of grace in our Christian life and work and we must respect the reality that in this life the optimal encounter with Christ is in the Sacred Liturgy With these words Bishop Dominique Rey of Fr jus Toulon France opened Sacra Liturgia 2013 an international conference in which he brought together over twenty leading liturgists cardinals bishops and other scholars from around the world to emphasize the centrality of liturgical formation and celebration in the life and mission of the Church The New Evangelization must be founded on the faithful and fruitful celebration of the Sacred Liturgy as given to us by the Church in her tradition Western and Eastern Bishop Rey asserted Sacra Liturgia 2013 the proceedings of which this book publishes explored questions of liturgical art architecture music the ars celebrandi the importance of ritual in human psychology truly pastoral liturgy the place of the older liturgical rites in the New Evangelization liturgical formation liturgical law the role of the diocesan bishop in respect of the liturgy and more Sacred Liturgy The Source and Summit of the Life and Mission of the Church is an important resource in ongoing liturgical formation for clergy religious and laity and makes a significant contribution to that renewal promoted in the Pontificate of Benedict XVI That is the renewal which embraces the riches of liturgical tradition as valuable treasures seeks to read the Second Vatican Council according to a hermeneutic of continuity not rupture and is in no doubt that as Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger once wrote the true celebration of the Sacred Liturgy as the center of any renewal of the Church
