Quality Education and International Partnership for Textile and Fashion Xinfeng Yan,Lihong Chen,Hafeezullah Memon,2023-07-02 This book mainly focuses on SDG4 Quality Education and aims to understand the past present and future of textile fashion apparel and related study majors of East African countries Professors and field experts in textile engineering of selected countries describe the potential and prospects of textile education and how it can lead to internationalization in the various chapters It also discusses the textile university alliance and the potential for international education related to textiles in the developing region With updated illustrations images data graphs and tables this book serves as a reference book for universities with textile engineering major in countries throughout the world The Status of Student Involvement in University Governance in Kenya Mulinge, Munyae M.,Arasa, Josephine N.,2017-05-05 This book examines the concept of the democratization of governance in universities in Kenya with particular emphasis on students involvement in governance processes and decision making Data were collected from members of the student community utilizing a structured self administered questionnaire and from purposively selected key informants and focus group discussants drawn from Kenyatta University representing the public sector and the United States International University representing the private sector The guiding argument for the study was that shared governance one of the principles of good governance is critical in enabling the universities to deliver their visions and the missions effectively The results revealed that while in principle Kenyan universities have embraced democratic governance in which all stakeholders including students have a role to play in practice they continue to violate the core principles of good governance particularly shared governance Specifically students who are major stakeholders in university education are largely excluded from significant structures of governance thereby limiting their influence and participation Although their representation is mainly provided via student self governance organs unions associations and or councils their effectiveness is undermined considerably by the lack of trust and confidence of the student body and the unending manipulation by top university administrators and external political actors Student active involvement in decision making is mainly confined to lower levels such as the school faculty and departmental programme The authors call for a paradigm shift in the involvement of students in the governance of universities in ways that discourage the current culture of tokenism and political correctness that characterizes public and private universities in Kenya Development Estimates for the Year ... Kenya,2014 Estimates of Recurrent Expenditure of the Government of Kenya for the Year Ending ... Kenya,2015 Peace Journalism Principles and Practices Steven Youngblood,2016-11-03 Long time peace journalist Steven Youngblood presents the foundations of peace journalism in this exciting new textbook offering readers the methods approaches and concepts required to use journalism as a tool for peace reconciliation and development Guidance is offered on framing stories ethical treatment of sensitive subjects and avoiding polarizing stereotypes through a range of international examples and case studies spanning from the Iraq war to the recent unrest in Ferguson Missouri Youngblood teaches students to interrogate traditional media narratives about crime race politics immigration and civil unrest and to illustrate where and how a peace journalism approach can lead to more responsible and constructive coverage and even assist in the peace process itself

Discourses of Globalisation and Higher Education Reforms Joseph Zajda, W. James Jacob, 2022-03-15 This book examines some of the major higher education reforms and policy shifts globally particularly in the light of recent shifts in quality and standards driven education and policy research It critiques the neo liberal ideological imperatives of current higher education and policy reforms and illustrates the way that changes in the relationship between the state and higher education policy affect current trends in higher education reforms Using diverse comparative education paradigms from critical theory to historical comparative research the chapters focus on globalisation ideology and higher education reforms and examine both the reasons and outcomes of higher education reforms and policy change The book analyses and evaluates the policy shifts in methodological approaches to globalisation and higher education reforms and their impact on education policy and pedagogy The book contributes in a very scholarly way to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between globalisation comparative education research and higher education reforms

Mental Health Crisis in Higher Education Aloka, Peter, 2023-12-29 The COVID 19 pandemic brought about a sudden transition from traditional face to face instruction to online and blended learning The repercussions of this seismic change have left an indelible mark on students particularly those thrust into the challenging realm of fully engaging in online learning during this tumultuous period As we navigate the delicate landscape of higher education post pandemic a critical gap in scholarly literature becomes glaringly apparent there is a scarcity of focused works addressing the nuanced well being of students in this new academic reality Mental Health Crisis in Higher Education is a groundbreaking book that boldly steps into this void offering a comprehensive and meticulously researched examination of the challenges faced by students transitioning from secondary to higher education amid the pandemic By delving into stressors coping mechanisms and the intricate web of factors influencing emotional psychological and physical well being the book is an invaluable resource for academics researchers and institutions seeking to understand and address the multifaceted dimensions of student well being

Deaf Education Beyond the Western World Harry Knoors, Maria Brons, Marc Marschark, 2019-01-16 If teachers want to educate deaf learners effectively they have to apply evidence informed methods and didactics with the needs of individual deaf students in mind Education in general and education for deaf learners in particular is situated in broader societal contexts where what works within the Western world may be quite different from what works beyond the Western world By exploring practice based and research based evidence about deaf education in countries that largely have been left out of the international discussion thus far this volume encourages more researchers in more countries to continue investigating the learning environment of deaf learners based on the premise of leaving no one behind Featuring chapters centering on 19 countries from Africa Asia Latin America and Central and Eastern Europe the volume offers a picture of deaf education from the perspectives of local scholars and teachers who demonstrate best practices and challenges within their respective regional contexts This volume addresses the notion of learning through the exchange of knowledge outlines the commonalities and differences between practices and policies in educating deaf and hard of hearing learners and looks ahead to the prospects for the future development of deaf education research in the context of recently adopted international legal frameworks Stimulating academic exchange regionally and globally among scholars and teachers who are fascinated by and invested in deaf education this volume strengthens the foundation for further improvement of education for deaf children all around the world
