Les Parisiennes Anne Sebba, 2016-10-18 What did it feel like to be a woman living in Paris from 1939 to 1949 These were years of fear power aggression courage deprivation and secrets until finally renewal and retribution Even at the darkest moments of Occupation with the Swastika flying from the Eiffel Tower and pet dogs abandoned howling on the streets glamour was ever present French women wore lipstick Why It was women more than men who came face to face with the German conquerors on a daily basis perhaps selling them their clothes or travelling alongside them on the Metro where a German soldier had priority over seats By looking at a wide range of individuals from collaborators to resisters actresses and prostitutes to teachers and writers Anne Sebba shows that women made life and death decisions every day and often did whatever they needed to survive Her fascinating cast of characters includes both native Parisian women and those living in Paris temporarily American women and Nazi wives spies mothers mistresses and fashion and jewellery designers Some women like the heiress B atrice de Camondo or novelist Ir ne N mirovsky converted to Catholicism others like lesbian racing driver Violette Morris embraced the Nazi philosophy only a handful like Coco Chanel retreated to the Ritz with a German lover A young medical student Anne Spoerry gave lethal injections to camp inmates one minute but was also known to have saved the lives of Jews But this is not just a book about wartime In enthralling detail Sebba explores the aftershock of the Second World War and the choices demanded How did the women who survived to see the Liberation of Paris come to terms with their actions and those of others Although politics lies at its heart Les Parisiennes is a fascinating account of the lives of people of the city and specifically in this most feminine of cities its women and young girls From publisher s website
