Ancient and Indigenous Wisdom Traditions in African and Euro-Asian Contexts Ehaab Abdou, Theodore Zervas, 2024-08-01 This book brings attention to the understudied and often overlooked question of how curricula and classroom practices might inadvertently reproduce exclusionary discourses and narratives that omit or negate particular cultures histories and wisdom traditions With a focus on representations and classroom practices related especially to ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures it includes unique contributions from scholars studying these questions in various contexts The book offers a range of important studies from key African and Euro Asian contexts including Afghanistan Albania Greece Iran South Africa Sweden T rkiye and Zimbabwe The various chapter contributions address and discuss nuances of each of the contexts under study The contributions also help highlight some key commonalities across these contexts including how dominant discourses and various forces have historically shaped and continue to shape and reproduce such omissions misrepresentations and marginalization In addition to seeking to reconcile with some of these ancient and Indigenous wisdom traditions and cultures the book charts a path forward towards more holistic analytical frameworks as well as more inclusive and balanced representations and classroom practices in these aforementioned geographic contexts and beyond It will appeal to scholars researchers undergraduate and graduate students with interests in Indigenous education curriculum studies citizenship education history of education religion and educational policy

New developments in ESP teaching and learning research Cédric Sarré, Shona Whyte, 2017-12-05 In this collective volume we seek to bridge gaps between research and practice in the teaching and learning of English for Specific Purposes ESP with a set of strong research based contributions drawing on a wide range of ESP contexts It offers new theoretical and pedagogical insights for ESP practitioners and researchers alike going beyond descriptions of ESP situations and programmes to bring in sound research design and data analysis which are firmly anchored in previous ESP research The nine papers in this collection cover a variety of ESP domains from medicine technical science and engineering to social sciences and the humanities in order to encapsulate current trends and new developments in ESP teaching and learning research in Europe

Leading Works in Public Law Patrick O'Brien, Ben Yong, 2024-10-08 This book brings together a group of leading scholars working in public law and constitutional theory It examines accepted leading works of public law while also exploring those that deserve greater attention Over 13 chapters a group of leading public law experts each examine one leading work from the UK public law canon Each chapter critically reflects on the context of a work in public law taking into account not just the work and its context but also how it shapes and contributes to the broader discipline The final chapter offers an international overview of the chapters themselves reflecting critically on the scholarly canon of UK public law from the perspective of American constitutional scholarship The book will be of interest to scholars and students of constitutional law

(Re)Constructing Memory: Textbooks, Identity, Nation, and State James H. Williams, Wendy D.

Bokhorst-Heng,2016-07-08 This book engages readers in thirteen conversations presented by authors from around the world regarding the role that textbooks play in helping readers imagine membership in the nation Authors voices come from a variety of contexts some historical some contemporary some providing analyses over time But they all consider the changing portrayal of diversity belonging and exclusion in multiethnic and diverse societies where silenced invisible marginalized members have struggled to make their voices heard and to have their identities incorporated into the national narrative The authors discuss portrayals of past exclusions around religion ethnicity sexual orientation as they look at the shifting boundaries of insider and outsider This book is thus about who we are not only demographically but also in terms of the past especially how and whether we teach discredited pasts through textbooks The concluding chapters provides ways forward in thinking about what can be done to promote curricula that are more inclusive critical and positively bonding in increasingly larger and more inclusive contexts
