The Integrated Adult Practice Class is based on the principle that learning is best achieved through authentic experience. Although authentic experiences and good instruction are essential and embedded in the learning process, they are not sufficient. The student is responsible for developing and experiencing with these materials in their own way, through self-paced learning and understanding of the learning process by completing the Integrated Adult Practice Class. The learning objectives of the Integrated Adult Practice Class are:

- 10 The study was conducted through observations, surveys and youth dialogues, focused on
- 11 youth planning, youth health and training that resulted in reports.
- 12 The study focuses on strategies for strengthening an already existing program that
- 13 the teenagers started, including strengthening leadership and applying youth knowledge
- 14 The teenagers have, which support them in building leadership
- 15 The research was youth-oriented, complemented by reports that address a specific and
- 16 the interests of the youth group.
