Routledge Handbook Of Contemporary Malaysia:

Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia, 2014 Asian Smallholders in Comparative Perspective Eric Thompson, Jamie Gillen, Jonathan Rigg, 2025-10-01 Asian Smallholders in Comparative Perspective provides the first multicountry interdisciplinary analysis of the single most important social and economic formation in the Asian countryside the smallholder Based on ten core country chapters the volume describes and explains the persistence transformations functioning and future of the smallholder and smallholdings across East and Southeast Asia As well as providing a source book for scholars working on agrarian change in the region it also engages with a number of key current areas of debate including the nature and direction of the agrarian transition in Asia and its distinctiveness vis vis transitions in the global North the persistence of the smallholder notwithstanding deep and rapid structural change and the question of the efficiency and productivity of smallholder based farming set against concerns over global and national food security Regime Resilience In Malaysia And Singapore Greg Lopez, Bridget Welsh, 2022-11-08 Prominent scholars across the political divide and academic disciplines analyse how the dominant political parties in Malaysia and Singapore United Malays National Organisation UMNO and the People's Action Party PAP have stayed in power With a focus on developments in the last decade and the tenures of Prime Ministers Najib Tun Razak and Lee Hsien Loong the authors offer a range of explanations for how these regimes have remained politically resilient The Bersih Movement and Democratisation in Malaysia Khoo Ying Hooi, 2020-12-10 Beginning in 2005 as a small electoral reform initiative the Coalition for Clean and Fair Elections known as Bersih became the most prominent social movement in Malaysia Based on participant observation approach and first hand interviews with key actors this book examines how Bersih became a movement that aggregated the collective grievance of Malaysians and brought Malaysian sociopolitical activism to a new level This book makes a major contribution to the scholarly work on social movement theories in the Southeast Asian context and to the growing literature on social movements and democratization The Constitution of Malaysia Andrew Harding, 2022-05-19 This book should find its place in every person's library it is a resource for engagement and vital critical discourse Philip T N Koh Star2 This is a much welcome new edition of the seminal introduction to Malaysia's constitution by the leading expert in the field Retaining its comprehensive approach it examines constitutional governance in light of authoritarianism and continuing inter communal strife as well as examining the impact of colonisation on Malaysia's legal public law structure Updated throughout to include all statutory and case law developments it also retains its socio political perspective A must read for all students and scholars of Malaysian law Political Economy of Malaysia's Industrial Policy Firdausi Suffian, 2021-02-22 This book examines the national automotive policy in Malaysia to help readers gain an understanding of the country's industrial policy making processes Addressing a gap in analysis of the political economy of the national automotive policy the research presented combines the new institutional theory and the developmental state approach to provide new insights into elite policymakers measures to shield domestic automotive enterprises from pro market reforms The formation of the national car project marks a turning point for Malaysia s industrial development as a country which it envisions will lead to it becoming a major player in the global automotive market However the domestic institutional factors embedded in ethno economic interests and patronage constrain national car makers limiting their potential to grow and instead causing a slowdown in the industry Allowing readers to understand the background to Malaysia s heavy industrialisation programme and the birth of its national car projects this book critically discusses the significance of institutional context in policy outcomes and highlights how institutions and policies have impact growth or decline It is a valuable resource relevant to analysts researchers and students who are interested in the political economy of the national industrial policy and automotive industry in Malaysia and beyond

Blood Work Janet Carsten,2019-07-26 What is blood How can we account for its enormous range of meanings and its extraordinary symbolic power In Blood Work Janet Carsten traces the multiple meanings of blood as it moves from donors to labs hospitals and patients in Penang Malaysia She tells the stories of blood donors their varied motivations and the paperwork payment and other bureaucratic processes involved in blood donation tracking the interpersonal relations between lab staff and revealing how their work with blood reflects the social cultural and political dynamics of modern Malaysia Carsten follows hospital workers into factories and community halls on blood drives and brings readers into the operating theater as a machine circulates a bypass patient s blood Throughout she foregrounds blood s symbolic power uncovering the processes that make the hospital the blood bank the lab and science itself work In this way blood becomes a privileged lens for understanding the entanglements of modern life
