Wood,2022-11-24 Excerpt This work is simply as the title page states an account of the manners and customs of uncivilized races of men in all parts of the world Many travellers have given accounts scattered rather at random through their books of the habits and modes of life exhibited by the various people among whom they have travelled These notices however are distributed through a vast number of books many of them very scarce many very expensive and most of them ill arranged and it has therefore been my task to gather together in one work and to present to the reader in a tolerably systematic and intelligible form the varieties of character which develop themselves among races which have not as yet lost their individuality by modern civilization In this task I have been greatly assisted by many travellers who have taken a kindly interest in the work and have given me the invaluable help of their practical experience Mademoiselle de Maupin Théophile Gautier,2020-08-18 Mademoiselle de Maupin is a historical romance based on the life of French opera star Mademoiselle Maupin who was a first rate swordswoman and often went about disguised as a man Originally the story was to be about the historical La Maupin who set fire to a convent for the love of another woman but later retired to a convent herself shortly before dying in her thirties Gautier instead turned the plot into a simple love triangle between a man d Albert and his mistress Rosette who both fall in love with Madelaine de Maupin who is disguised as a man named Th odore The novel consists of seventeen chapters most in the form of letters written by d Albert or Madelaine The message behind Gautier s version of the infamous legend is the fundamental pessimism about the human identity and perhaps the entire Romantic age Scissors and Yardstick C.
