[illegible]

The focus being that rather than focusing on students and gender problems, which would require gender-specific interventions, the idea is to focus on gender as a concept and to give students the tools to think about gender and communication. It just goes to show that we need to be careful that when we teach gender, we don't teach it in a way that is too specific. It is important to teach about gender in a way that is not too specific. It is important to teach about gender in a way that is not too specific. It is important to teach about gender in a way that is not too specific.
