

Chapter 20.1: Americans Struggle with Postwar Issues

KEY TERMS	NOTE TAKING AREA
Isolationism	It was a policy of avoiding involvement in international matters. Many Americans believed in this in response to stressful conditions and becoming fearful of outsiders.
Sacco and Vanzetti	They were caught and charged with the robbery and murder of a factory paymaster and his guard.
Quota System	An agreement that sets a restriction on the number of immigrants allowed from each country.
John L. Lewis	Long-serving labor leader who founded and led the first significant labor union for unskilled employees, called in to represent the union during a sit-down strike.
MAIN IDEAS
Explain how the Red Scare, the Sacco and Vanzetti case, and the rise of the Ku Klux Klan reflected concerns held by many Americans.	The red scare was the dread of communism spreading. It sparked a witch hunt in the United States and around the world to eliminate communists. Anyone accused of having ties to communists was placed on trial and found guilty. This witch hunt cost movie producers, lawyers, judges, and others their jobs and freedom. The Vietnam War was made more difficult by the red panic. People were "afraid" that the democratic south would be overtaken by the communist north. Americans' anxieties of immigration, foreign criminality, and anarchy were expressed in the Sacco and Vanzetti trial. Because of organized crime, there was also anti-Italian emotion in the trial and conviction felt by many Americans across the country. White America's concern of minority groups taking over the country was reflected in the development of the Ku Klux Klan. This anxiety arose from the surge in the number of immigrants and African-Americans in the United States, as well as changes in American politics that granted these minority groups equal rights and opportunities.
Describe the primary goal of the immigration quota system established in 1921 and amended in 1924.	The 1921 immigration quota system was designed to control European immigration, which had risen due to WWI refugees.
