Explorations in Southern African Drama, Theatre and Performance Patrick J. Ebewo, 2017-05-11 In spite of the rich repertoire of artistic traditions in Southern Africa particularly in the areas of drama theatre and performance there seems to be a lack of a corresponding robust academic engagement with these subjects While it can be said that some of the racial groups in the region have received substantial attention in terms of scholarly discussions of their drama and theatre performances the same cannot be said of the black African racial group As such this collection of thirteen chapters represents a compendium of critical and intellectual discourses on black African drama theatre and performance in Botswana Lesotho South Africa and Swaziland The topics covered in the book include amongst others ritual practices interventionist approaches to drama textual analyses and the funeral rites viewed as performance of the South African liberation icon Nelson Mandela The discussions are rooted mainly using African paradigms that are relevant to the context of African cultural production The contributions here add to the aggregate knowledge economy of Southern Africa promote research and publication and provide reading materials for university students specialising in the performing arts As such the book will appeal to academics theatre scholars cultural workers and arts administrators arts practitioners and entrepreneurs the tourism industry arts educators and development communication experts

Political Memory and the Aesthetics of Care Mihaela Mihael, 2022-01-11 With this nuanced and interdisciplinary work political theorist Mihaela Mihael tackles several interrelated questions How do societies remember histories of systemic violence Who is excluded from such histories cast of characters And what are the political costs of selective remembering in the present Building on insights from political theory social epistemology and feminist and critical race theory Mihael argues that a double erasure often structures hegemonic narratives of complex violence of widespread heterogeneous complicity and of impure resistances not easily subsumed to exceptionalist heroic models In dialogue with care ethicists and philosophers of art she then suggests that such narrative reductionism can be disrupted aesthetically through practices of mnemonic care that is through the hermeneutical labor that critical artists deliver thematically and formally within communities space of meaning Empirically the book examines both consecrated and marginalized artists who tackled the memory of Vichy France communist Romania and apartheid South Africa Despite their specificities these contexts present us with an opportunity to analyze similar mnemonic dynamics and to recognize the political impact of dissenting artistic production Crossing disciplinary boundaries the book intervenes in debates over collective responsibility historical injustice and the aesthetics of violence within political theory memory studies social epistemology and transitional justice

The Fall Baxter Theatre Company, 2017-09-28 The Fall is a play collaboratively written by the original cast as a reaction to and reflection on the South African student protests in 2015 and part of 2016 The RhodesMustFall and subsequent student led movements in South Africa alerted the country and the world to the latent ongoing issues brought about by colonialism and apartheid in South Africa Students were also protesting about the lack of change in the way black Africans were educated and treated at South African universities more than two decades after the end of white minority rule They were also angry about fee increases which disproportionately affected black students in a country of continued extreme income inequality The Fall details the experiences of seven students within this movement and how they deal with their traumas while still moving towards activism for a free decolonised education This powerful ensemble piece goes to the heart of how race class gender power and history s voices intersect It premiered at the Baxter Theatre in Cape Town toured to other venues in South Africa and to the Edinburgh Festival and the Royal Court Theatre London It was awarded The Stage Cast Award and a Scotsman Fringe First award in Edinburgh and was described in The Stage as a truly ensemble production which has both teeth and heart And one which stands for student revolt around the world and down the ages

Trauma and Literature J. Roger Kurtz, 2018-03-15 As a concept trauma has attracted a great deal of interest in literary studies A key term in psychoanalytic approaches to literary study trauma theory represents a critical approach that enables new modes of reading and of listening It is a leading concept of our time applicable to individuals cultures and nations This book traces how trauma theory has come to constitute a discrete but influential approach within literary criticism in recent decades It offers an overview of the genesis and growth of literary trauma theory recording the evolution of the concept of trauma in relation to literary studies In twenty one essays covering the origins development and applications of trauma in literary studies Trauma and Literature addresses the relevance and impact this concept has in the field

South African performance and archives of memory Yvette Hutchison, 2015-11-01 This book explores how South Africa is negotiating its past in and through various modes of performance in contemporary theatre public events and memorial spaces It analyses the Truth and Reconciliation Commission as a live event as an archive and in various theatrical engagements with it asking throughout how the TRC has affected the definition of identity and memory in contemporary South Africa including disavowed memories Hutchison then considers how the SA Mali Timbuktu Manuscript Project and the 2010 South African World Cup opening ceremony attempted to restage the nation in their own ways She investigates how the Voortrekker Monument and Freedom Park embody issues related to memory in contemporary South Africa She also analyses current renegotiations of popular repertoires particularly songs and dances related to the Struggle revivals of classic European and South African protest plays new history plays and specific racial and ethnic histories and identities

The Cambridge History of South African Literature David Attwell, Derek Attridge, 2012-01-12 South Africa s unique history has produced literatures in many languages in both oral and written forms reflecting the diversity in the cultural histories and experiences of its people The Cambridge History offers a comprehensive multi authored history of South African literature in all eleven official languages and more minor ones of the country produced by a team of over forty international experts including contributors from all of the major regions and language groups of South Africa. It will provide a complete portrait of South Africa's literary production organised as a chronological history from the oral traditions existing before colonial settlement to the post-apartheid revision of the past. In a field marked by controversy, this volume is more fully representative than any existing account of South Africa's literary history. It will make a unique contribution to Commonwealth international and postcolonial studies and serve as a definitive reference work for decades to come.

Forays into Contemporary South African Theatre, 2019-11-11. In the years that followed the end of apartheid, South African theatre was characterized by a remarkable productivity which resulted in a process of constant aesthetic reinvention. After 1994, the protest theatre template of the apartheid years morphed into a wealth of diverse forms of stage idioms detectable in the works of Greg Homann, Mike van Graan, Craig Higginson, Lara Foot, Omphile Molusi, Nadia Davids, Magnet Theatre, Rehane Abrahams, Amy Jephta, and Reza de Wet, to cite only a few prominent examples. Marc and Jessica Maufort's multivocal edited volume documents some of the various ways in which the rainbow nation has forged these innovative stage idioms. This book's underlying assumption is that creolization reflects the processes of identity renegotiation in contemporary South Africa and their multi-faceted theatrical representations. Contributors: Veronica Baxter, Marcia Blumberg, Vicki Briault, Manus Petrus du Preez, Paula Fourie, Craig Higginson, Greg Homann, Jessica Maufort, Marc Maufort, Omphile Molusi, Jessica Murray, Jill Planche, Ksenia Robbe, Mathilde Rogez, Chris Thurman, Mike van Graan, and Ralph Yarrow.

The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary South African Theatre, Martin Middeke, Peter Paul Schnierer, 2015-11-19. South Africa has a uniquely rich and diverse theatre tradition which has responded energetically to the country's remarkable transition, helping to define the challenges and contradictions of this young democracy. This volume considers the variety of theatre forms and the work of the major playwrights and theatre makers producing work in democratic South Africa. It offers an overview of theatre pioneers and theatre forms in Part One, before concentrating on the work of individual playwrights in Part Two. Through its wide-ranging survey of indigenous drama written predominantly in the English language and the analysis of more than 100 plays, a detailed account is provided of post-apartheid South African theatre and its engagement with the country's recent history. Part One offers six overview chapters on South African theatre pioneers and theatre forms. These include consideration of the work of artists such as Barney Simon, Mbongeni Ngema, Phyllis Klotz, the collaborations of William Kentridge and the Handspring Puppet Company, the work of Magnet Theatre, and of physical and popular community theatre forms. Part Two features chapters on twelve major playwrights, including Athol Fugard, Reza de Wet, Lara Foot, Zakes Mda, Ya-l Farber, Mpumelelo Paul Grootboom, Mike van Graan, and Brett Bailey. It includes a survey of emerging playwrights and significant plays, and the book closes with an interview with Aubrey Sekhabi, the Artistic Director of the South African State Theatre in Pretoria. Written by a team of over twenty leading international scholars, The Methuen Drama Guide to Contemporary South African Theatre is a unique resource that will be invaluable to Traumatic Imprints: Performance, Art, Literature and Theoretical Practice, 2020-09-25 This ebook presents conference proceedings from the 1st Global Conference Trauma theory and practice held in Prague Czech Republic in March 2011 The Palgrave Handbook of Theatre Censorship Anne Etienne, Graham Saunders, 2024-11-29 This book incorporates a wide theoretical cultural literary and historical engagement in exploring the tension between dramatic productions and the forms of censorship they encounter from creation to reception The Palgrave Handbook of Theatre Censorship offers global new insights into censorship practices examining attempts at repression motivated either by fears that audiences gathering together to watch live dramatic events will lead to sedition and mass uprisings or by moral or religious squeamishness requiring the establishment of institutional systems of censorship to curb or suppress the stage As such the Handbook aims to initiate redefinitions of what we understand or experience as censorship Who knew theatre could still carry so many threats or be so widely provocative and dangerous This is an extraordinary and often eye opening set of thirty six individually insightful wide ranging and oftentimes disturbing essays each of which offers unique insights into theatre censorship practices and their impact within a specific political and moral culture There is a particular emphasis on the recent and current and the authors speak with first hand knowledge and from direct experience not only about the restrictions but also how artists sometimes negotiate and evade these What makes the book so especially fascinating and illuminating is seeing so many examples juxtaposed together This enables the reader to hear the essays and the cultures talking to and alongside each other The collection repeatedly breaks fresh ground and the editors deserve enormous credit for gathering and effectively curating so many reports from the front line Steve Nicholson Emeritus Professor University of Sheffield UK Anne Etienne and Graham Saunders s book is a wide ranging incisive and compelling collection of reflections and case studies on the theatre industry s relationship to censorship and self censorship from a historical and contemporaneous perspective An impressive array of authors have been assembled for this volume representing among them views on the subject from Spain Denmark Norway Zimbabwe South Africa Germany Italy Indonesia Iran Portugal Turkey Brazil Japan Ireland Australia Russia England and more The book is by turns surprising in its curatorial and narrative design and wonderfully effective at delineating the complex and thorny paths that create socio political cultures where the censorship and self censorship of theatre artists thrives and or is efficaciously contested and rebelled against Of note is a through line of argument in the book around less overt modes of surveillance that police artists imaginations and thereby the work they create and produce At a time in the world where many governments are increasingly seeking to limit artistic expression this book is a necessary reminder of the many freedoms that have been fought for in theatres around the globe and how the power of being unsilenced must never be taken for granted Caridad Svich Playwright Translator This is a truly excellent collection of incisive studies It is wide ranging impressively global in scope with an illuminating balance of the historical and the contemporary In its impressive and well realised ambition demonstrated by the well focused intelligence and academic flair of its many contributors this collection is both magisterial and vital It is an essential contribution to censorship studies fascinating and inspiring a must read for anyone interested in the subject Aleks Sierz Theatre critic and author of Rewriting the Nation British Theatre Today 2011 Good Nights Out A History of British Theatre Since the Second World War 2021
