Ebewo, 2017-05-11 In spite of the rich repertoire of artistic traditions in Southern Africa particularly in the areas of drama theatre and performance there seems to be a lack of a corresponding robust academic engagement with these subjects While it can be said that some of the racial groups in the region have received substantial attention in terms of scholarly discussions of their drama and theatre performances the same cannot be said of the black African racial group As such this collection of thirteen chapters represents a compendium of critical and intellectual discourses on black African drama theatre and performance in Botswana Lesotho South Africa and Swaziland The topics covered in the book include amongst others ritual practices interventionist approaches to drama textual analyses and the funeral rites viewed as performance of the South African liberation icon Nelson Mandela The discussions are rooted mainly using African paradigms that are relevant to the context of African cultural production The contributions here add to the aggregate knowledge economy of Southern Africa promote research and publication and provide reading materials for university students specialising in the performing arts As such the book will appeal to academics theatre scholars cultural workers and arts administrators arts practitioners and entrepreneurs the tourism industry arts educators and development communication experts

Political Memory and the Aesthetics of Care Mihaela Mihai, 2022-01-11 With this nuanced and interdisciplinary work political theorist Mihaela Mihai tackles several interrelated questions How do societies remember histories of systemic violence Who is excluded from such histories cast of characters And what are the political costs of selective remembering in the present Building on insights from political theory social epistemology and feminist and critical race theory Mihai argues that a double erasure often structures hegemonic narratives of complex violence of widespread heterogeneous complicity and of impure resistances not easily subsumed to exceptionalist heroic models In dialogue with care ethicists and philosophers of art she then suggests that such narrative reductionism can be disrupted aesthetically through practices of mnemonic care that is through the hermeneutical labor that critical artists deliver thematically and formally within communities space of meaning Empirically the book examines both consecrated and marginalized artists who tackled the memory of Vichy France communist Romania and apartheid South Africa Despite their specificities these contexts present us with an opportunity to analyze similar mnemonic dynamics and to recognize the political impact of dissenting artistic production Crossing disciplinary boundaries the book intervenes in debates over collective responsibility historical injustice and the aesthetics of violence within political theory memory studies social epistemology and transitional justice

The Fall Baxter Theatre Company, 2017-09-28 The Fall is a play collaboratively written by the original cast as a reaction to and reflection on the South African student protests in 2015 and part of 2016 The RhodesMustFall and subsequent student led movements in South Africa alerted the country and the world to the latent ongoing issues brought about by colonialism and apartheid in South Africa Students were also protesting about the lack of change in the way black Africans were educated and treated at South African universities more than two decades after the end of white minority rule They were also angry about fee increases which disproportionately affected black students in a country of continued extreme income inequality The Fall details the experiences of seven students within this movement and how they deal with their traumas while still moving towards activism for a free decolonised education This powerful ensemble piece goes to the heart of how race class gender power and history s voices intersect It premiered at the Baxter Theatre in Cape Town toured to other venues in South Africa and to the Edinburgh Festival and the Royal Court

Theatre London It was awarded The Stage Cast Award and a Scotsman Fringe First award in Edinburgh and was described in The Stage as a truly ensemble production which has both teeth and heart And one which stands for student revolt around the world and down the ages Traumatic Imprints: Performance, Art, Literature and Theoretical Practice
