Notwithstanding Stories From An English Village:

Notwithstanding Louis de Bernieres, 2016-10-18 As the world around it marches forward the bucolic English village of Notwithstanding remains unchanged It is as it always has been a place of pubs and cricket pitches where local eccentrics a retired colonel who has eschewed clothes a spiritualist living with the ghost of her husband and a dog named Archibald Scott Moncrieff almost fit in In this delightfully evocative collection of stories in which a young couple falls in and out of love by letter alone an eleven year old boy battles a monstrous fish and a man of the cloth has a premonition of death Louis de Bernieres conjures up a rural idyll long since forgotten Funny bittersweet and deeply felt Notwithstanding is the bestselling author of Corelli's Mandolin at his most enchanting Notwithstanding Louis De Bernières, 2010 Welcome to the village of Notwithstanding where a lady dresses in plus fours and shoots squirrels a retired general gives up wearing clothes altogether and a spiritualist lives in a cottage with the ghost of her husband A Dictionary of Writers and their Works

Christopher Riches, Michael Cox, 2015-01-29 Over 3 200 entries An essential guide to authors and their works that focuses on the general canon of British literature from the fifteenth century to the present There is also some coverage of non fiction such as biographies memoirs and science as well as inclusion of major American and Commonwealth writers This online exclusive new edition adds 60 000 new words including over 50 new entries dealing with authors who have risen to prominence in the last five years as well as fully updating the entries that currently exist Each entry provides details of a writer's nationality and birth death dates followed by a listing of their titles arranged chronologically by date of publication

Modernity and the English Rural Novel Dominic Head, 2017-04-07 This book examines the persistence of the rural tradition in the English novel into the twentieth century In the shadow of metropolitan literary culture rural writing can seem to strive for a fantasy version of England with no compelling social or historical relevance Dominic Head argues that the apparent disconnection is in itself a response to modernity rather than a refusal to engage with it and that the important writers in this tradition have had a significant bearing on the trajectory of English cultural life through the twentieth century At the heart of the discussion is the English rural regional novel of the 1920s and 1930s which reveals significant points of overlap with mainstream literary culture and the legacies of modernism Rural writers refashioned the conventions of the tradition and the effects of literary nostalgia to produce the swansong of a fading genre with resonances that are still relevant today

So Much Life Left Over Louis de Bernieres, 2019-07-09 They were an inseparable tribe of childhood friends whose world was torn apart by the First World War Some were lost in battle and those who survived have had their lives unimaginably upended scattered to Ceylon and India France and Germany and inevitably back to Britain Now at the dawn of the 1920s all are trying to pick up the pieces At the center of Louis de Bernieres's riveting novel are Daniel an RAF flying ace and Rosie a wartime nurse As their marriage is slowly revealed to be built on lies Daniel finds solace and sometimes family with other women and Rosie draws her religion around herself like a carapace Here too are Rosie's sisters a bohemian a minister's wife and a spinster each seeking purpose and happiness in her own unconventional way and Daniel's military brother unable to find his footing in a peaceful world Told in brief dramatic chapters So Much Life Left Over follows the stories of these old friends over the decades as their paths re-cross or their ties fray as they test loyalties and love face survivor's grief and guilt and adjust to a new world The Cat in the Treble Clef Louis de Bernières, 2018-11-01 A beautiful collection of poems from bestselling author Louis de Bernières From the very start of his writing career Louis de Bernières has loved poetry Here the author of the much loved Captain Corelli's Mandolin returns to this first love with his third collection The Cat in the Treble Clef focuses on family and the connections we make and break with other people There are moving poems to and about his family his great grandmother his mother and father and his children There are poems about places near and far about the passing of time music and about love in its various forms In this collection de Bernières shares his passion with his readers in a beautifully illustrated gift edition Ghosts of Christmas Past Neil Gaiman, M.
