Jabulisile Mhlambi, Sandile Ngidi

November 2012 Paper 2 Isizulu:

Zulu Warriors John Laband, 2014-05-27 The Anglo Zulu War the most famous of Britain's late nineteenth century campaigns of colonial conquest was not fought in isolation Along with the two Anglo Pedi wars the Ninth Cape Frontier War and the Northern Border War it was one in a brutal series of interconnected and overlapping wars which the British waged between 1877-1879 to crush and disarm the remaining independent black states of South Africa Fusing the widely differing African and European perspectives on events the author probes the fateful decisions taken by statesmen and military commanders analyses military operations and their destructive impact on combatants and civilians alike and explores why so many Africans chose to fight as auxiliaries and levies alongside the British instead of against them Jacket The People's Zion Joel Cabrita, 2018-06-11 Joel Cabrita tells the story of Zionism which began in a utopian community near Chicago in 1900 Its faith healing spiritualism uplifting pan racialism and missionary zeal resonated with marginalized urban working class whites and blacks in both the United States and Southern Africa Today Zionism is Southern Africa's largest religious movement #FeesMustFall and Youth Mobilisation in South Africa Musawenkosi Ndlovu, 2017-07-14 Cover Title Copyright Contents Preface Introduction and rationale 1 The view of South African youth before FeesMustFall 2 Were the 2015 student protests a revolution 3 What the 2015 protests actually were and how they were possible 4 Ikohlisan ihlomile FMF students engagement with power and their ideological differences 5 Can South Africa's declining economy inspire student led new revolution 6 Youth's declining news consumption levels and ideologically divided media 7 Youth's polysemic interpretation of the ANC regime and the limits of the new revolution 8 Youth's declining participation levels in the public sphere the constraints of new revolution 9 Conclusion FMF protests will not lead to a revolution per se at least not yet but to wide ranging reforms References Index Computational Linguistics and Intelligent Text Processing Alexander Gelbukh, 2018-03-20 The two volume set LNCS 9623-9624 constitutes revised selected papers from the CICLing 2016 conference which took place in Konya Turkey in April 2016 The total of 89 papers presented in the two volumes was carefully reviewed and selected from 298 submissions The book also contains 4 invited papers and a memorial paper on Adam Kilgarriff's Legacy to Computational Linguistics The papers are organized in the following topical sections Part I In memoriam of Adam Kilgarriff general formalisms embeddings language modeling and sequence labeling lexical resources and terminology extraction morphology and part of speech tagging syntax and chunking named entity recognition word sense disambiguation and anaphora resolution semantics discourse and dialog Part II machine translation and multilingualism sentiment analysis opinion mining subjectivity and social media text classification and categorization information extraction and applications Language Contact. Volume 2 Jeroen Darquennes, Joseph C. Salmons, Wim Vandenbussche, 2025-04-21 Targeting a full range of students and scholars this volume provides a total of 50 chapters illustrating the linguistic dynamics and the dynamics of inter individual and societal language contact as well as the dynamics of multidisciplinary language contact studies Fueled by a wealth of data from a rich variety of contact situations its geographically balanced case studies are governed by the triangulation between a focus on language structure and change a sincere drive of sociopolitical and academic agency and the confrontation with an everyday reality that can be unkind to and ignorant of those two factors The volume clearly demonstrates the social relevance of our trade in a time burdened with ecolinguistic challenges The Routledge Handbook of Lexicography Pedro A. Fuertes-Olivera, 2017-10-02 The Routledge Handbook of Lexicography provides a comprehensive overview of the major approaches to lexicography and their applications within the field This Handbook features key case studies and cutting edge contributions from an international range of practitioners teachers and researchers Analysing the theory and practice of compiling dictionaries within the digital era the 47 chapters address the core issues of The foundations of lexicography and its interactions with other disciplines including Corpus Linguistics and Information Science Types of dictionaries for purposes such as translation and teaching Innovative specialised dictionaries such as the Oenolex wine dictionary and the Online Dictionary of New Zealand Sign Language Lexicography and world languages including Arabic Hindi Russian Chinese and Indonesian The future of lexicography including the use of the Internet user participation and dictionary portals The Routledge Handbook of Lexicography is essential reading for researchers and students working in this area Progress, Change and Development in Early Childhood Education and Care Elizabeth Coates, Dorothy Faulkner, 2017-10-02 In 2000 the Millennium Development Goals set out targets aimed at creating a safer more prosperous and more equitable world If these goals were to be achieved children s lives would indeed be transformed In this collection achievements against these targets are identified with each contributor examining the progress made in early years provision in Australia China England Greece the Netherlands Portugal South Africa and Sweden They highlight the priorities and agendas of their respective governments and focus on the trends and issues which are particularly relevant to each situation thereby revealing the social and educational inequalities that persist across countries A common theme running through this volume concerns the political tensions that arise when governments and educators hold fundamentally different views about the nature and purpose of early years education and the needs of children and families It is clear that although the past two decades have seen many changes in attitude towards the importance of the early years of life politically economically and environmentally much still remains to be done if the Millennium Development Goals for young children and their families are to be fully met Despite this this volume demonstrates that those who work in this area continue to experience a deep concern for the well being of young children which transcends cultures frontiers and political and sectarian divides This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Early Years Education Intersectionality and Women's Access to Justice in Africa J. Jarpa Dawuni, 2022-10-17 Intersectionality and Women s Access to Justice edited by J Jarpa Dawuni propounds layered intersectionality as a paradigm for examining how gendered factors affect women s access to justice whether as judges or litigants Through intersectional and decolonial frameworks the contributors analyze the lived experiences of women and their access to justice by situating the courtroom as both a spatial and a temporal arena for seeking justice as litigants and for seeking access to the bench as judges This book examines patterns of mutually reinforcing discriminatory practices that women share based on common gender identities and depending on which identities are at play at a given point in time in both traditional and statutory courts The book provides recommendations for various justice sector providers

Multilingualism and Intercultural Communication H.

Ekkehard Wolff,Pamela Maseko,Russell H Kaschula,Christine Anthonissen,Bassey E Antia,2017-05-01 An in depth look at the changing sociolinguistic dynamics that have influenced South African society To date there has been no published textbook which takes into account changing sociolinguistic dynamics that have influenced South African society Multilingualism and Intercultural Communication breaks new ground in this arena The scope of this book ranges from macro sociolinguistic questions pertaining to language policies and their implementation or non implementation to micro sociolinguistic observations of actual language use in verbal interaction mainly in multilingual contexts of Higher Education HE There is a gradual move for the study of language and culture to be taught in the context of professional disciplines in which they would be used for example Journalism and African languages Education and African languages etc The book caters for this growing market Because of its multilingual nature it caters to English and Afrikaans language speakers as well as the Sotho and Nguni language groups _ the largest languages in South Africa and also increasingly used in the context of South African Higher Education It brings together various inter linked disciplines such as Sociolinguistics and Applied Language Studies Media Studies and Journalism History and Education Social and Natural Sciences Law Human Language Technology Music Intercultural Communication and Literary Studies The unique cross cutting disciplinary features of the book will make it a must have for twenty first century South African students and scholars and those interested in applied language issues

After Access Jonathan Donner,2015-12-11 An expert considers the effects of a more mobile Internet on socioeconomic development and digital inclusion examining both potentialities and constraints Almost anyone with a 40 mobile phone and a nearby cell tower can get online with an ease unimaginable just twenty years ago An optimistic narrative has proclaimed the mobile phone as the device that will finally close the digital divide Yet access and effective use are not the same thing and the digital world does not run on mobile handsets alone In After Access Jonathan Donner examines the implications of the shift to a more mobile more available Internet for the global South particularly as it relates to efforts to promote socioeconomic development and broad based inclusion in the global information society Drawing on his own research in South Africa and India as well as the burgeoning literature from the ICT4D Internet and Communication Technologies for Development and mobile communication communities Donner introduces the After Access Lens a conceptual framework for understanding effective use of the Internet by those whose digital repertoires contain exclusively mobile devices Donner argues that both the potentialities and constraints of the shift to a more mobile Internet are important considerations for scholars and practitioners interested in Internet use in the global South Mintirho ya Vulavula Jabulisile Mhlambi, Sandile Ngidi, 2021-04-19 Mintirho ya Vulavula Arts National Identities and Democracy examines the role of arts and culture in development and specifically its value in consolidating our nascent democracy and in facilitating the transformation of South African society Contributors to this edited volume interrogate the role of arts culture and heritage from a transdisciplinary perspective enriched by the cross generational perspectives offered by young and older artists cultural practitioners activists and scholars Authors also offer some policy recommendations on how the contribution of arts and culture to social cohesion and nation building can be enhanced Song Walking Angela Impey, 2018-11-28 Song Walking explores the politics of land its position in memories and its foundation in changing land use practices in western Maputaland a borderland region situated at the juncture of South Africa Mozambique and Swaziland Angela Impey investigates contrasting accounts of this little known geopolitical triangle offsetting textual histories with the memories of a group of elderly women whose songs and everyday practices narrativize a century of borderland dynamics Drawing evidence from women s walking songs amaculo manihamba once performed while traversing vast distances to the accompaniment of the European mouth harp isitweletwele she uncovers the manifold impacts of internationally driven transboundary environmental conservation on land livelihoods and local senses of place This book links ethnomusicological research to larger themes of international development environmental conservation gender and local economic access to resources By demonstrating that development processes are essentially cultural processes and revealing how music fits within this frame Song Walking testifies to the affective spatial and economic dimensions of place while contributing to a more inclusive and culturally apposite alignment between land and environmental policies and local needs and practices Handbook of Terminology Hendrik J. Kockaert, Frieda Steurs, 2015-03-13 Terminology has started to explore unbeaten paths since W ster and has nowadays grown into a multi faceted science which seems to have reached adulthood thanks to integrating multiple contributions not only from different linguistic schools including computer corpus variational socio cognitive and socio communicative linguistics and frame based semantics but also from engineering and formal language developers In this ever changing and diverse context Terminology offers a wide range of opportunities ranging from standardized and prescriptive to prototype and user based approaches At this point of its road map Terminology can nowadays claim to offer user based and user oriented hence user friendly approaches to terminological phenomena when searching extracting and analysing relevant terminology in online corpora when building term bases that contribute to efficient communication among domain experts in languages for special purposes or even when proposing terms and definitions formed on the basis of a generally agreed consensus in international standard bodies Terminology is now ready to advance further thanks to the integration of meaning description taking into account dynamic natural language phenomena and of consensus based terminology management in order to help experts communicate in their domain specific languages In this Handbook of Terminology HoT the symbiosis of Terminology with

Controlled Natural Language B. Davis,C.M. Keet,A. Wyner,2018-09-12 Controlled natural languages CNLs are based on natural language and apply restrictions on vocabulary grammar and or semantics They fall broadly into 3 groups Some are designed to improve communication for non native speakers of the respective natural language in others the restrictions are to facilitate the use of computers to analyze texts for example to improve computer aided translation and a third group of CNLs are designed to enable reliable automated reasoning and formal knowledge representation from seemingly natural texts This book presents the 11 papers selected from 14 submitted and delivered at the sixth in the series of workshops on Controlled Natural Language CNL 2018 held in Maynooth Ireland in August 2018 The papers cover a full spectrum of controlled natural languages ranging from human oriented to machine processable controlled languages and from more theoretical results to interfaces reasoning engines and the real life application of CNLs The book will be of interest to all those working with controlled natural language whatever their approach Morphosyntactic variation in East African Bantu languages Hannah Gibson,Rozenn Guérois,Gastor Mapunda,Lutz Marten,2024-02-19 The approximately 500 Bantu languages spoken across vast areas of Central Eastern and Southern Africa are united by the presence of a number of broad typological similarities including for example complex noun class system and agglutinative verbal morphology However the languages also exhibit a high degree of micro variation Recent work has demonstrated fine grained morphosyntactic variation across many Bantu languages focusing on grammatical topics such as double object constructions inversion constructions or object marking adopting formal comparative and typological perspectives Continuing in this vein this volume builds on the momentum of the dynamic field of morphosyntactic variation in Bantu and contributes to the growing body of work which examines morphosyntactic variation with a regional focus on the Bantu languages of East Africa The East African region is characterized by high linguistic complexity in terms of the number of languages spoken in terms of the four different linguistic phyla present and in terms of the inherent sociolinguistic dynamics The current volume explores this complexity further by bringing together studies which investigate features of morphosyntax of an individual language as well as those which develop an in depth examination of a single morphosyntactic phenomena in a small sample of languages The book seeks also to add to the descriptive status of the languages under examination as well as raising questions relating to language language contact language change and micro variation in related languages spoken in close geographic proximity The Bantu Languages Mark Van de Velde,Koen Bostoen,Derek Nurse,Gérard

Philippson,2019-01-30 Written by an international team of experts this comprehensive volume presents grammatical analyses of individual Bantu languages comparative studies of their main phonetic phonological and grammatical characteristics and overview chapters on their history and classification It is estimated that some 300 to 350 million people or one in three Africans are Bantu speakers Van de Velde and Bostoen bring together their linguistic expertise to produce a volume that builds on Nurse and Philippson s first edition The Bantu Languages 2nd edition is divided into two parts Part 1 contains 11 comparative chapters and Part 2 provides grammar sketches of 12 individual Bantu languages some of which were previously undescribed The grammar sketches follow a general template that allows for easy comparison Thoroughly revised and updated to include more language descriptions and the latest comparative insights New to this edition new chapters on syntax tone reconstruction and language contact 12 new sketch grammars thoroughly updated chapters on phonetics aspect tense mood and classification exhaustive catalogue of known languages with essential references This unique resource remains the ideal reference for advanced undergraduate and postgraduate students of Bantu linguistics and languages It will be of interest to researchers and anyone with an interest in historical linguistics linguistic typology and grammatical analysis

The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages Lutz Marten, Ellen Hurst-Harosh, Nancy C. Kula, Jochen Zeller, 2025-08-19 This volume brings together leading scholars from Africa Europe the Americas and beyond to provide a detailed account of the languages of the Bantu family which cover an area from Cameroon and Kenya in the north to South Africa in the south The Bantu family is part of the Niger Congo phylum and one of the world's biggest language groups comprising around 500 languages The family includes major languages with large numbers of speakers such as Zulu Kinyarwanda and Swahili the most widely spoken and taught African language as well as many community languages and several endangered languages Bantu languages feature prominently in the complex and multilingual language ecologies that are characteristic of the linguistic situation in much of Africa and they provide rich evidence for the study of theoretical and comparative linguistics language contact and language change They play an important role in education commerce culture and artistic expression in the media and public discourse in governance and social justice and are central to the future of the continent and the well being of its communities The first part of The Oxford Guide to the Bantu Languages provides background and context with chapters exploring the history of research in the field language and prehistory in Bantu speaking Africa and typology and variation Chapters in the second part offer broad comparative overviews of Bantu phonology morphology syntax semantics and pragmatics socio and applied linguistics before Parts III VII cover more specific topics in Bantu linguistics across a variety of subfields ranging from structural issues such as the augment and melodic tone to historical and sociolinguistic topics such as Bantu languages in the diaspora and language policy and standardization The chapters in the final part offer individual structural overviews of a range of languages from across the Bantu speaking area The book will be an essential resource for students and researchers specializing in the Bantu languages and for typologists and comparative linguists more broadly
