Teaching Design Meredith Davis, 2017-07-11 An Expertly Written Guidebook to Teaching Design at All Levels Teaching Design provides a practical foundation for teaching about and through design The exploding interest in design and design thinking calls for qualified faculty members who are well prepared for a variety of institutional settings and content areas While designers know their disciplines they frequently lack experience in constructing responsive curricula and pedagogies for rapidly evolving professions And while K 12 educators are trained for the classroom their ability to transform teaching and learning through design is limited by a shortfall in professional literature Davis s extensive experience in education offers a detailed path for the development of curricula The book addresses writing objectives and learning outcomes that succeed in the counting and measuring culture of institutions but also meet the demands of a twenty first century education An inventory of pedagogical strategies suggests approaches to learning that serve both college professors and K 12 teachers who want to actively engage students in critical and creative thinking Sections on assessment make the case for performance based activities that provide credible evidence of student learning Davis also discusses the nature of contemporary problems and teaching strategies that are well matched to growing complexity rapid technological change and increased demand for interdisciplinary engagement Examples in Teaching Design span the design disciplines and draw on Davis s experience in teaching seminars for college faculty graduate courses for design students seeking academic careers and workshops for K 12 teachers converting their classrooms into centers for innovation

Understanding Popular Culture and World Politics in the Digital Age Laura J. Shepherd, Caitlin Hamilton, 2016-05-20 The practices of world politics are now scrutinised in a way that is unprecedented with even those previously or conventionally assumed to be disengaged from international affairs being drawn into world politics by social media Interactive websites allow users to follow election results in real time from the other side of the world and online mapping means that the world out there is now available on your mobile phone Understanding Popular Culture and World Politics in the Digital Age engages these themes in contemporary world politics to better understand how digital communication through new media technologies changes our encounters with the world Whether the focus is digital media social networking or user generated content these sites of political activity and the artefacts they produce have much to tell us about how we engage world politics in the contemporary age This volume represents the starting point of a dialogue about how digital technologies are beginning to impact the research and practice of scholars and practitioners in the field of International Relations with the collection of cutting edge essays dealing specifically with the intertextuality of world politics and digital popular culture This book will be of use to International Relations research academics and critically engaged publics interested in the core themes of global politics subjectivity militarism humanitarianism civil society organisation and governance The book also employs theories and techniques closely associated with other social science disciplines including political theory sociology cultural studies and media studies

Asia in International Relations Pinar Bilgin, L.H.M.

Ling,2017-02-01 Asia in International Relations decolonizes conventional understandings and representations of Asia in International Relations IR This book opens by including all those geographical and cultural linkages that constitute Asia today but are generally ignored by mainstream IR Covering the Indian subcontinent Turkey the Mediterranean Iran the Arab world Ethiopia and Central Northeast Southeast Asia the volume draws on rich literatures to develop our understanding of power relations in the world s largest continent Contributors de colonize de imperialize and de Cold War the region to articulate an alternative narrative about Asia world politics and IR This approach reframes old problems in new ways with the possibility of transforming them rather than recycling the same old approaches with the same old intractable outcomes

Muslim Fashion Reina Lewis,2015-10-15 In the shops of London s Oxford Street girls wear patterned scarves over their hair as they cluster around makeup counters Alongside them hip twenty somethings style their head wraps in high black topknots to match their black boot cut trousers Participating in the world of popular mainstream fashion often thought to be the domain of the West these young Muslim women are part of an emergent cross faith transnational youth subculture of modest fashion In treating hijab and other forms of modest clothing as fashion Reina Lewis counters the overuse of images of veiled women as evidence in the prevalent suggestion that Muslims and Islam are incompatible with Western modernity Muslim Fashion contextualizes modest wardrobe styling within Islamic and global consumer cultures interviewing key players including designers bloggers shoppers store clerks and shop owners Focusing on Britain North America and Turkey Lewis provides insights into the ways young Muslim women use multiple fashion systems to negotiate religion identity and ethnicity Making Sense of Iranian Society, Culture, and Business K.H.
