

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

TIM LC UMM

November 2013 English Paper 2 Memorandum:

Dangerous Allies Malcolm Fraser, Cain Roberts, 2016-04-12 Australia has always been reliant on great and powerful friends for its sense of national security and for direction on its foreign policy first on the British Empire and now on the United States Australia has actively pursued a policy of strategic dependence believing that making a grand bargain with a powerful ally was the best policy to ensure its security and prosperity Dangerous Allies examines Australia's history of strategic dependence and questions the continuation of this position It argues that international circumstances in the world and in the Western Pacific especially now make such a policy highly questionable Since the fall of the Soviet Union the United States has also changed dramatically making it less relevant to Australia and a less appropriate ally on which Australia should rely Malcolm Fraser argues that Australia should adopt a much greater degree of independence in foreign policy and that we should no longer merely follow other nations into wars of no direct interest to Australia or Australia's security He argues for an end to strategic dependence and for the timely establishment of a truly independent Australia in the seventeenth century at the forefront of these changes were Italian composers and performers who found fame and influence in their native countries as well as abroad In the second part of this book the dissemination of Italian music in seventeenth century England and the appropriation and assimilation of contemporary Italian compositional techniques by English composers are considered The phenomenal interest shown in Italian music by English patrons and musicians of the seventeenth century is placed into context and is revealed to be part of a larger historical trend Here We May Rest Silvia Giagnoni,2017-04-01 Hailed as the most restrictive immigration bill in the nation the Beason Hammon Alabama Taxpayer Citizen Protection Act known as HB 56 went into effect in September 2011 Its intent was to create jobs for Alabamians by making the lives of undocumented immigrants in the state impossible so that they would self deport It failed Here We May Rest offers a comprehensive explanation of how and why HB 56 came about and reports on its effects on immigrant communities Author Silvia Giagnoni argues that the legislation was anti immigrant not merely anti illegal immigration as its proponents claimed Building a case against the legalistic framework through which the bill was promoted Giagnoni dissects the role the media and Fox News specifically played in criminalizing immigrants as well as mainstreaming immigrant haters which created the xenophobic climate that paved the way for the Trump Presidency The new immigrants of Alabama take center stage in the second part of the book reclaiming their role in the cultural social and economic development of the state Giagnoni concludes with an appeal against any form of social segregation because only direct contact massive prolonged equal and intimate as Howard Zinn argued will cure the stereotyping and prejudice that feed ignorance and foster fear
