The Caste Question Anupama Rao, 2009-10-13 This innovative work of historical anthropology explores how India's Dalits or ex untouchables transformed themselves from stigmatized subjects into citizens Anupama Rao's account challenges standard thinking on caste as either a vestige of precolonial society or an artifact of colonial governance Focusing on western India in the colonial and postcolonial periods she shines a light on South Asian historiography and on ongoing caste discrimination to show how persons without rights came to possess them and how Dalit struggles led to the transformation of such terms of colonial liberalism as rights equality and personhood Extending into the present the ethnographic analyses of The Caste Question reveal the dynamics of an Indian democracy distinguished not by overcoming caste but by new forms of violence and new means of regulating caste

Questions of Cultural Identity Stuart Hall, Paul du Gay, 1996-04-04 Why and how do contemporary questions of culture so readily become highly charged questions of identity The question of cultural identity lies at the heart of current debates in cultural studies and social theory At issue is whether those identities which defined the social and cultural world of modern societies for so long distinctive identities of gender sexuality race class and nationality are in decline giving rise to new forms of identification and fragmenting the modern individual as a unified subject Questions of Cultural Identity offers a wide ranging exploration of this issue Stuart Hall firstly outlines the reasons why the question of identity is so compelling and yet so problematic The cast of outstanding contributors then interrogate different dimensions of the crisis of identity in so doing they provide both theoretical and substantive insights into different approaches to understanding identity
